SYNOD OF COLUMBIA.

SYNODICAL COMMITTEE'S EXPENSES.—A claim of $75 was presented to meet the expenses of the Home Mission Committee of the Synod. It was ordered to be paid.

MORMON SETTLEMENT.—There was laid on the table and read a document from the Presbytery of Calgary, as to the Mormon Settlements within their bounds. It was referred to a sub-Committee, consisting of Dr. Laing, Dr. Campbell and Mr. Herdman. At a later stage of the proceedings the sub-Committee reported as follows:

In September, 1892, the Presbytery of Calgary appointed Rev. G. Hamilton of Macleod, to visit the colony of Mormons recently established in the southern part of Alberta. Mr. Hamilton discharged his mission in a most satisfactory manner. His report has been transmitted by the Presbytery to the Home Mission Committee.
