THIS EVENING

Fireman's Sports at Queen's Bldg. Read night at Victoria Bldg. Empire Dramatic Club meets for rehearsal at Mission Church school room 7.30 o'clock. Regular meeting of St. David's Y. P. A. Firefighters Club meets at the residence of W. S. Fisher, Orange Street. The Shipbuilders' new society will meet at the Odd Fellows' hall West End. The Hibernian Knights will meet for drill in their armory.

LOCAL NEWS

The Donalson line steamer Alcides, which sailed for Glasgow direct yesterday, took away 477 cattle.

The Empire Dramatic Club will meet for rehearsal this evening in the Mission Church school room at 7.30 o'clock.

The steamship Bengore Head, Captain Campbell, will go to sea tonight. She is bound for Belfast with a general cargo.

The Y. P. A. of St. David's church will hold their regular meeting this evening. A very fine programme has been prepared by the historical committee.

Rev. A. A. Graham, pastor of St. David's church, commenced last evening a series of very interesting sermons on the "Seven Churches of Asia."

Manifesto for 21 cases of American cattle were received at the customs house today going through in bond to United Kingdom by winter port steamers.

St. David's Beaser Corps will not meet for drill tonight, as the drill hall will be in use for other purposes. Drill will be held, however, on Thursday next.

Capt. W. B. Millberry, late of the schooner Arthur M. Gibson will take command of the large three-masted schooner Bessie now in port leaving tomorrow for Barbados, by Donald Fraser & Son.

We have just received from Newfoundland a choice consignment of large, fresh also, pickled and kippered herring and bladders at Smith's Fish Market, 25 Sydney Street, 1704, P. A. Smith, Manager.

The policemen will hold their annual winter sports at the Victoria rink on the 20th of this month, and from present indications the attendance will be very large.

When you want fish of any kind it will pay you to call on McPherson—Smith's Fish Market, 25 Sydney Street, near Scribner's Corner. Everything new and clean. We have the greatest variety of fish dealer in the city. P. A. Smith, manager.

The German Steamer Gesellschaft, Capt. Hottelner, arrived Saturday evening from Philadelphia with 1,070,571 wine gallons of refined petroleum, 34,015 gallons for this city, and 78,556 gallons for Halifax, to be taken in same vessel to that port.

The old magazine on Fort Howe is undergoing general repairs. New floors and joints are being installed by H. E. Brown, and the structure will be thoroughly overhauled and put into first class shape. Col. Armstrong visited the building this morning.

The Firemen's sports under the sanction of the M. P. A. A. A. will be held at the Queen's rink tonight. A large number of entries for all the events have been received. The horse race, the match race between Evans and Logan, and the horse coupling contest will be interesting events.

C. P. R. liner Lake Champlain, Captain Stewart, from Liverpool, arrived yesterday morning at 4 o'clock, and docked at 12.20 at No. 1 berth, Sand Point. Besides a fairly good-sized cargo she brought out 180 passengers. There were a few Scandinavians, but the majority were English, and of a good class, and having considerable means.

F. A. Dykeman Co will commence their annual white sale on Tuesday morning. The ladies of St. John have learned by past experience that this sale offers the opportunity of the year to lay in their supply of white ware. This year Messrs. Dykeman have made an effort to surpass any other former sales, and the goods they are showing would indicate their efforts will meet with success.

THE SUN AND STAR

(Frederick Gleaner.) The St. John correspondent of the Toronto News, writing under date of Wednesday, says, in effect, that B. P. Pearson, M. P. P., of Halifax, has acquired the major portion of the stock of the St. John Sun, and that his purchase will cause a change in the politics of the journal. Mr. Pearson is a lawyer by profession, a Liberal in politics, and in his way quite a company promoter. The dispatch says it is understood that Mr. Pearson is acting for the Liberal party by arrangement with the Minister of Railways. If the Sun has been sold to the Conservatives the loss will be seriously felt by that party. Editorially it was a very strong and influential journal, one of the leaders in Canada.

HOTEL ARRIVALS

McINTYRE AND COMEAU

Mr. McIntyre Confirms Report of Comeau's Retirement—Plans for the Future.

The rumors concerning the future of the firm of McIntyre & Comeau, Ltd., were confirmed this morning by Mr. McIntyre, who informed a Times representative that Mr. Comeau had disposed of his stock holdings in the concern. This stock has been purchased by Mr. McIntyre, who will continue the business in future at the Water Street premises under the firm name of McIntyre & Comeau, Ltd.

Mr. Comeau has formed a partnership with Humphrey Sheehan, and has leased the Emerson & Fisher building on Prince William Street.

The retirement of Messrs. Comeau and Sheehan leaves vacant the offices of vice-president and secretary treasurer of McIntyre & Comeau Ltd. These will be filled at once.

Mr. McIntyre, when seen this morning, expressed his hearty thanks to all the patrons of the former firm and his hope that their patronage should be continued.

THE CUSHING CASE

Probable That Another Appeal Will Soon Be Recorded.

It is probable that another appeal will soon be recorded in the Cushing Case. On Saturday afternoon Mr. Justice McLeod granted leave to the liquidators of the Cushing Sulphite Co., to apply to a judge of the Supreme Court of Canada for leave to appeal from the judgment of the Supreme Court of New Brunswick given on the 8th inst. The appeal from the order of Mr. Justice McLeod, by which the appeal was refused, will be recorded for the purpose of the appeal on May 1, 1906. His honor also extended the time for taking steps to perfect the appeal until Feb. 15. J. D. Hazen appeared for the liquidators, and M. G. Teed, K. C., for the Eastern Trust Co.

MOTOR FISHING CRAFT

Are a Success in Bay of Fundy Waters—A Digby Record.

(Digby Courier.) These who were doubtful if an auxiliary fishing schooner for Bay Fundy fishing would prove a profitable investment, are now obliged to admit that this style of vessel is just what is required. They will also find that the Wilfred L. Snow will have even a greater advantage during the moderate weather which prevails throughout the summer season. The new vessel was only in commission 29 days during which time she stocked $1,028.00, her highest day's catch being $290.00. She is now hauled up for the winter months at Messrs. Sids & Cousins' wharf. It is rumored that the Alcyon and other fishing vessels will be fitted with a gasoline or kerosene motor next season.

PERSONAL INTELLIGENCE

Mrs. (Dr.) Marshall, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Ada Marshall, arrived from Halifax Saturday evening. They are the guests of Mrs. E. J. Hisset, 181 Parsloe Row.

Miss A. Colwell of Vancouver, B. C. is visiting Mrs. R. Aloza Cameron, 42 Duigan St.

George Waring, formerly head engineer of the Cushing pulp mill, is spending a vacation with friends in St. John. He is now engineer on a steamer running out of New York.

POLICE COURT

Mabel Miller Sent to Good Shepherd's Home For Six Months.

In the police court this morning Rev. James Nicholson, for drunkenness, was fined $8 or one month in jail with hard labor. Hugh McDonald, arrested on Saturday for being drunk, forfeited a deposit of $8.

Mabel Miller (see Naira) arrested by the west end police about a week ago, wandering about the streets at two o'clock in the morning and not giving a satisfactory account of herself, was this morning sentenced to six months in the Good Shepherd's Home.

When first brought before the court the prisoner pleaded guilty. This morning she stated that she was married last fall.

A report is entered in the police court by the west end police against John Doherty for assaulting and beating James H. Lind on Rodney wharf on the 13th inst.

FUNERALS

The funeral of the late Mrs. Robert Moore took place from her husband's residence, Garnet Settlement, at 2 o'clock today. Rev. Mr. Hoy officiated and interment was in the Loch Long cemetery.

The body of the late Mrs. Elizabeth Creary was laid in its last resting place in the old Catholic cemetery this morning. Rev. Father Sheehan celebrated requiem high mass at 8.30.

The funeral of the late John McMillan took place at 8.30 this morning from his father's residence, corner Simonds and Brook streets. Requiem high mass was celebrated in St. Peter's church, and interment was in the new Catholic cemetery.

AN EXQUISITE EXPOSITION

Tomorrow will be a tremendously busy day at Manchester's department store. The exhibition would indicate. Not only will the great yearly sale of lines and cottons with its free-banning privilege be on in full blast, but the most important underwear exposition of the whole year will commence at 8.30 o'clock. It is the January sale of fine undergarments for women, misses and little girls, an event over which every tasteful mother and miss goes in ecstasies. A world of the loveliest white wear in Canada—no better anywhere—at prices that suit the moderate buyer, as well as the rich man's daughter who is getting for her wedding trousseau. See Page 2.

PRODUCTION ABANDONED

Jerry Murphy, of the Murphy Stock Company, called at the Times office this morning and announced that the production of his own play, entitled "Clifford's Bounding House, or Behind the Bars with Jerry," which was announced to take place in Jubilee Hall to-morrow night, has been abandoned for the present. Mr. Murphy finds it impossible to give the play adequate scenic treatment in so short a time. Mr. Murphy will, however, give a concert in about two weeks, while the play may be given to the world at a later date.

ORGANIST WELCOMED BACK

Miss Ella M. Holder, organist of the Main Street Baptist Church, returned on Saturday from a vacation trip to Boston and resumed her duties at the church services yesterday. After the practice service evening the ladies of the choir provided a lunch in honor of her return. A pleasant time was spent and the organist received a hearty welcome back being very popular with all members of the choir. Miss Holder reports having had a most enjoyable visit and the weather in Boston most pleasant.

ALD MACRAE WILL RETIRE

Business Claims Will Force Him to Leave Civic Life for a Time.

Ald. A. W. Macrae, LL. D., has announced that he will not offer again as an aldermanic candidate. He says he finds it interferes too much with his business, which is demanding more of his time.

Ald. Macrae regrets that he has to sever his connection with civic affairs as he has always taken a keen interest in any matter that was for the advancement and well-being of the city generally. Ald. Macrae has been wanted on by two delegations of citizens asking him to become a candidate for the mayoralty but he was compelled to decline. It is, however, possible that in the future he may be able to again enter the arena.
