KNOCK-DOWNS ARE A FEATURE OF THE BRITISH CAMPAIGN

Violence increases as the end of the contest draws near.

WEAPONS USED

Razors, bottles, wrenches and stones figured in disturbances.

BY LLOYD ALLEN
(United Press Staff Cor.)

London, Oct. 23.—Razors, bottles, wrenches and stones figured in the British election campaign today. Violence marked meetings in many constituencies.

A 22-year-old Dulwich man was sent to the hospital in a critical condition with a razor gash from mouth to ear, received in a melee designed to break up a Conservative meeting.

In South London, a man was knocked unconscious with a bottle, and several others were severely injured by wrenches in the hands of the hecklers.

A heckler at a Derbyshire Conservative meeting called candidate Sherwood Kelly a liar. Kelly left the platform and knocked the man down.

Sir Robert Horne was obliged to abandon a speech at Glasgow because of wild disorders.

FACING ARREST TRIES SUICIDE

Serious Scandal Over Passports in Rumania.

Bucharest, Rumania, Oct. 23.—Discovery of an extensive organization for the issuance and sale of bogus passports to the United States resulted yesterday evening in the attempted suicide of General Vlatkovic, brother of a member of the Rumanian Cabinet, and today threatened a Cabinet shake up.

The passport frauds were revealed by the United States consul in Cherbourg, France, who reported there irregularities in the papers of Rumanians attempting to board steamers for the United States. His reports resulted in the unearthing of an elaborate scandal and prompted the Rumanian authorities to order the arrest last night of General Vlatkovic. When an attempt was made to take him into custody, however, he shot himself, and was taken to a hospital, where it was said his condition was grave.

The scandal is considered in political circles as certain to result in the resignation of the general's brother and the reorganization of the Cabinet, particularly since other Cabinet members are reported to be involved.

Says His Pension Is Not Adequate

(Special to Times-Star.)

Fredrickton, Oct. 23.—Michael Hickey, who claims Newfoundland as his birthplace, was arrested here yesterday on a charge of vagrancy. He is a former member of the C. E. P., but says that his pension of a month is inadequate, and that he cannot secure employment.

On his person were found letters from Ottawa to the effect that the Pension Board refused to permit him to commute his pension, as it was a 15 per cent pension and as such was too large for the regulations to permit of commutation. He also has a discharge certificate from the United States Army, to the effect that he had served seven months in 1920 and had been discharged with recommendation against re-enlistment, but with good character.

Hickey has been about Fredrickton for some time. His case will be investigated.

His Case Set Heather Afire

J. Ross Campbell, socialist editor and veteran of the World War, around whose trial on a charge of sedition a British political storm broke, resulting in the crash of the MacDonald Government. An investigation had been demanded on the question of why sedition charges had been dropped and when a vote of confidence in the Labor cabinet was not forthcoming in the House of Commons.

ANTLERS SPREAD FIFTY-FOUR INCHES

Big Moose Shot at Keswick by Sportsman From U. S.

(Special to Times-Star.)

Fredrickton, Oct. 23.—Chief Game Warden L. A. Gagnon has received a report of the taking of a moose head with a spread of fifty-four inches, on the South Branch of the Keswick. An American sportsman was the successful hunter. He had Isaac Farrer of Keswick as guide.

FRANCE SAYS RUHR ACTION JUSTIFIED

Paris, Oct. 23.—(United Press.)—Reading her economic crisis in the Ruhr and Rhineland, France considers the entire venture to have been worth while. Thousands of miles of railways and canals, and great mines and factories, have been returned to Germany, and military evacuation has begun, to continue gradually over a period of years.

Wire Briefs

Halifax, N. S., Oct. 23.—Rev. John Mackinnon, pastor of St. John's Presbyterian Church here, announced yesterday that he had received a call from the Bradford, Ontario, Presbyterian Congregation. He would not say today whether or not he had accepted.

New York, N. Y., Oct. 23.—The congregation of the First Presbyterian Church last night unanimously accepted Dr. Harry Emerson Fosdick's resignation. The meeting, however, extended an invitation to Dr. Fosdick to preach at the church on such Sundays as he finds it convenient.

Batavia, N. Y., Oct. 23.—One woman was burned, perhaps fatally, by Fire Chief D. B. Benedict when an overcooled boiler was struck with a heart attack; and more than a dozen persons narrowly escaped death when fire swept the down town business buildings early this morning. Fire loss was estimated at $25,000.

PRINCE OF WALES HAS A VERY BUSY SIXTEEN HOURS

Luncheon, Hunt, Tea, Dinner and Dance Planned for His Pleasure.

A ROYAL MOUNT

Many Were Out to Cheer His Royal Highness at Montreal Station.

Hamilton, Mass., Oct. 23.—Crowds of curious, waiting to catch a glimpse of the Prince of Wales, were gathered early along the road leading to the estate of Bayard Tuckerman, Jr., who was for a rushed sixteen hours today the host of the heir to the British throne. A programme of luncheon, a hunt, tea, dinner, and a dance was planned to fill every minute of the royal visitor's stay.

The drag hunt, the special occasion of the visit of the Prince, was arranged to include the sportiest jumps which had previously been included in two hunts, which had been planned when the Prince was expected to stay for three days. Desert Queen, Mrs. Tuckerman's chestnut mare, was chosen for the royal guests' ride.

The Prince of Wales lunched at the residence of Francis R. Appleton at Ipswich, and after the hunt took lunch with his host, meeting the three hundred friends who had been invited. Dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Lawrence at Ipswich, was scheduled at eight o'clock. A dance followed shortly after dinner, and continued until the Prince left for his train, which, routed through Worcester, carried him to New York to take the steamer Olympic for England.

Lowell, Mass., Oct. 23.—The Prince of Wales, coming to New England for a visit of one day as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Bayard Tuckerman, Jr., at their estate, Savin Hill Farm, Hamilton, arrived Lowell by special train a little after 10 o'clock this morning. The Prince was met by Mr. Tuckerman at the station.

DeValera Sets Out For Ulster

Dublin, Oct. 23.—Addressing a crowd at Newry last night prior to his departure for Ulster, Eamon De Valera answered a challenge of the northern government to arrest him if he crossed the border. Mr. De Valera said he was elected a representative of County Down, and that no man worthy of the people could ignore that challenge.

League Council Will Give Hearing

London, Oct. 23.—The British Government will be represented at the special meeting of the Council of the League of Nations at Brussels Monday, when the differences between Great Britain and Turkey on the Iraq question will come up for consideration, by Lord Parmoor and Sir Cecil H. D. Lewis, legal adviser to the foreign office. Lord Parmoor, who was at the head of the British delegation at the Assembly of the League in September, was largely responsible for bringing the question before the League. It is understood he will stand firmly on the terms of the Lausanne Treaty.

Empire and U. S. Together—Peace For World

Two of the famous Langhorne speeches last night.

In London Lady Nancy Astor said: "I wish the British Empire and the United States standing together would then you will get peace in the world. I wish there were two countries to lead the way and set the standard for the rest to follow."

Said Mrs. Charles Dana Gilbertson in New York: "I wish the Empire and the United States standing together would then you will get peace in the world. I wish there were two countries to lead the way and set the standard for the rest to follow."

Shanghai, Oct. 23.—(Canadian Press.)—Peking was completely cut off from telegraphic communication with all outside points this morning.

GERMANS FAVOR MR. LA FOLLETTE

He is For Revision of Treaty of Versailles and is Pro-German.

BY CARL D. GROAT
(United Press Staff Correspondent.)

Berlin, Oct. 23.—The average German's interest in the American election centres on the question of the probable effect upon the Treaty of Versailles, with the tariff secondary. Since Senator La Follette has said he favors revision of the treaty, most Germans favor La Follette. Every German yearns for revision of the treaty, and the post-war tendency has been to look to America for initiative in this matter.
