

RECENT DEATHS

Mrs. Howard Dyer.
East Florenceville, N. B., Sept. 12.—Mrs. Howard Dyer died at the home of her father, Theodore Rogers, Bristol N. B., on Wednesday morning, Sept. 12. She is survived by her husband, her father and one sister, Mrs. Merritt Stokoe of Boston.

Mrs. William Gallupe.
East Florenceville, Sept. 12.—The death of Mrs. William Gallupe, aged 73 years, occurred at her home here on Sept. 11. She had been in failing health for some time, suffering from heart trouble. She is survived by six daughters, Mrs. Bellevue of Boston, Mrs. Frank Tompkins of Detroit, Mrs. Acher Hartley, Mrs. Roland Semple of E. Florenceville, Miss Mabel of St. John and Miss Juanita at home, and two sons, William of Fort Fairfield, and Clyde of Hughes, Ont. The funeral services will be conducted on Friday afternoon.

MRS. TAYLOR'S WILL.
Her Husband, Daughter and Son Get Bulk of the Estate.

New York, Sept. 13.—The will of Mrs. Nellie Caldwell Taylor, who died on Sept. 8 at her residence, 640 Park avenue, was filed for probate in the Surrogate's Court. The document, dated June 10, 1921, bequeaths to the decedent's husband, Bertrand L. Taylor, a specific legacy of $100,000, the contents of decedent's apartment, certain jewelry and a life interest in four-tenths of the residuary estate. To her son, Bertrand L. Taylor Jr., of Mill Neck, L. I., the testatrix leaves a specific legacy of $100,000, one-tenth of the residuary estate outright, and a life interest in two-tenths of same. To her daughter, Dorothy Dentice, Countess of Frasso of Rome, Italy, she left certain jewelry and a life interest in three-tenths of the residuary estate. The will explains the gift of $100,000 to the son by saying she does this to equalize a similar gift made to her daughter, the Countess, in her lifetime. To her daughter-in-law, Mary V. Taylor of Mill Neck, L. I., she bequeaths $50,000, and $10,000 each to a grand-daughter, Mary B. Taylor, and a grand-son, Bertrand L. Taylor, 3d.

AUTO ROUND-UP

(Halifax Recorder)
Halifax might take a tip from those in and around Boston and have the auto regulations enforced. The biggest automobile round-up in years for various violations of automobile regulations and laws was staged on Thursday night in Cambridge, Mass., by Inspectors from the State Department of Motor Vehicles and members of the Cambridge police department. From 8 o'clock until 10 the officers operated a trap on a thoroughfare known for heavy auto traffic, and out of more than 250 cars halted only two had correct headlights, the others being either poorly adjusted or out of focus. In all cases where headlights were defective the inspectors handed operators tags, the stubs to be filed at the headquarters of State Registrar Frank A. Goodwin. They must have their headlights fixed and then report to the Department of Motor Vehicles for examination. Failure to report is likely to cost their registration. All without license or registrations were obliged to turn into side streets and park their cars, return to their homes and get the papers. One operator, who did not have a registration, was compelled to leave his car in a near-by garage.

About 23 is the proper age for a girl to marry. If she lets him reach 24 he becomes unruly.
