Alerts Win From Vets.

The G. W. V. A. went down to defeat before the Alerts on the East End grounds last evening by a close score of 5 to 4. Charles Gorman pitched a good game for his team, having eight strikeouts and allowing five hits but assisted by errors the Alerts got five runs. Kerr, who twirled for the Alerts, had the Veterans much at his mercy, allowing but three hits. Brogan played a good game and was fast on the bases. For the "Vets," McGowan played a good game in the field and Case shone at the bat, getting two hits in three times up. He was also fast on the sacks, having three steals to his credit.

"Fruit-a-tives" Conquered Nervous Prostration

R. R. No. 4, Gilbert Plains, Man.
"In the year 1910, I had Nervous Prostration in its worst form; dropping from 170 to 115 pounds.

The doctors had no hope of my recovery, and every medicine I tried proved useless until a friend induced me to take 'Fruit-a-tives'.

I began to almost at once, and never had such good health as I have enjoyed the past eight years. I am never without 'Fruit-a-tives' in the house."

THE RING

O'Dowd Wins.

Pocatello, Idaho, July 6—Mike O'Dowd of St. Paul, former middleweight champion, was awarded the decision here yesterday when Gordon McKay, who claims the middleweight championship of the northwest, refuses to answer the bell at the opening of the 18th round. It was to have been a 15-round affair.

Charlie White Knocked Out.

Benton Harbor, Mich., July 5—Benny Leonard, lightweight champion of the world, knocked out Charlie White, Chicago, in the ninth round of their scheduled ten round championship fight before a capacity crowd this afternoon. White carried the fighting to the champion for seven rounds and half knocking and punishing the New Yorker through the ropes in the fifth round.

The Chicagoan who had never been knocked out before, was floored five times in the ninth round and was counted out while lying on his face. A series of right and left hooks to the chin finished the challenger.

The men met at catch weights. Leonard scaled 137½ and White 134 at 11 o'clock this morning. Several thousand women were in the crowd.

There was a riot when the fight ended and the spectators scrambled over the seats and into the ring, breaking down the press section and injuring several ringsiders. None of them, however, were seriously hurt.

Defeated Title.

Lawrence, Mass., July 5—Tommy (Kilby) Corcoran, this city, successfully defended his title to the New England welterweight championship tonight when he won the decision over "Paddy" Flynn, Everett, in a 12-round bout. Flynn was badly beaten but stayed the full time.

Boxer Saves Girl.

Florence Kane, aged nineteen years, of Brooklyn, N. Y., was rescued from drowning the other morning in Martin's Pond, North Reading, by "Paddy" Flynn, pugilist. Flynn was training at the camp of Frankie Callahan, lightweight pugilist. Miss Kane is a sister-in-law of Callahan, who is camping at Reading with his wife and two children. Miss Kane started out on the pond in a canoe, but when about 150 feet offshore her paddle caught under the craft so that it capsized. Flynn witnessed the accident, and jumped into the water. Despite the fact that he was hampered by his heavy trousers and boots, he reached the girl and towed her to shore, where, with a doctor's aid, she was resuscitated.

PRESENTATION.

Previous to his departure from the firm of T. McAvity & Sons, Limited, to take a position with the Lunenburg Foundry and Car Works, Lunenburg (N.S.), G. Lowell Myers, of 8 Castle street, who for twelve years was an employee of the brass foundry in Water street, received a gold watch and fitted military case from the employees of that department.

The presentation being made by Harry Treat. Mr. Myers left for Lunenburg last week and will be followed soon by Mrs. Myers and their family. Mr. Myers is well known in amateur baseball circles in the city and his many friends will wish him success in his new home.

A meeting of the prohibition workers of Lorne ward was held last evening in the Temple of Honor hall, Main strech, to arrange for the campaign work. Committees were appointed to canvass the ward before the end of the week. Another meeting was held by the workers of Dufferin ward in the Mission church, Paradise row. The attendance was large. The following committee of ladies was appointed to canvass the ward: Mrs. Owen, Mrs. Rowley, Miss Pratt and Miss Kirkpatrick.

The new bankruptcy act came into effect July 1. The list of authorized trustees for all provinces will probably be published tomorrow.

A WONDERFUL RECEPTION

College Inn Realizes City's Appreciation of Its Delicatessen Service.

Success! What a wonderful word. Know what it means? We'll tell you.

First, we know a woman who spends a whole morning preparing dinner; she is tired at noon, the meal is nothing unusual, and the effort hardly worth while.

Next—a method is proposed to eliminate all that energy, improve the welcome of the table and save money.

If that method works, that's SUCCESS! We know it does! So do many others.

Get the delicatessen habit—come in tonight. 105 Charlotte Street—Opposite the Dufferin.
