RECENT DEATHS

Robert B. Paterson.

Robert B. Paterson, a prominent business man of the city, and well known to the civic and social life, died this morning about two o'clock at his residence in Wentworth street. He was about seventy-four years of age and a native of Scotland. He came to Canada about thirty-five years ago and settled in St. John. For a time he was employed with a local firm, and in 1880 entered into the formation of a firm of which he was the president at the time of his death. By his attention to business and clear vision in all matters affecting the interests of the firm he assisted in building up the well-known house of Brock & Paterson, dealers in woollen, military and ladies' wear. He had been in failing health for some time past. A past president of St. Andrew's Society, and a member of St. David's church, he was always ready and willing to do anything in his power to aid in the promotion of any good work. He was well known and respected by all his associates. Many friends will unite in a sincere feeling of sympathy for the bereaved family. Besides his wife, he leaves four sons, Kenneth, in the United States, and Graeme, Robert, and Baird, at home, and one daughter, Mrs. George E. Miller, of this city.

MORNING NEWS

OVER THE WIRES

At a meeting in Winnipeg, yesterday, the establishment of an inter-provincial political party composed of former organizations with the Canadian Council of Agriculture as co-ordinating agent was discussed. No decision was reached. The eastern delegates in attendance included J. T. Gaudin, S. C. Hagerman and J. C. Archibald from Brunswick.

Ferry Anthony, of Upper Kennetcook, Hants county, Nova Scotia, perished from cold and exposure while hunting in the woods. His body was found in the snow. It is presumed that he lost his way and wandered about until exhausted by hunger and then sat down to rest. He was twenty-four years of age.

Peter Delap, brother of a man who was murdered at Burnt Church last week, was the chief witness in the preliminary inquiry at Newmarket yesterday. His evidence was not very clear. Peter Swanson told of sleeping at the home of the Mitchell on the night of the tragedy, and said that Peter had told him that he had struck John Dedam with a knife.

LECTURE ON WEST INDIES

Under the auspices of the Junior Aid Society of the Carmarthen street Methodist church, last evening, Rev. E. E. Styles delivered an illustrated lecture on his experiences in the West Indies, while acting as a missionary from the Wesley Methodist Church of England. This mission field was the first that this denomination started. The speaker touched on the beautiful scenery of the islands, the climate, the products and the character, habits and occupations of the people. More than sixty lantern slides tended to give the audience a clearer idea of the islands. During the twelve years that Mr. Styles was in the mission field, his work took him to nearly all the islands of the West Indies, his last station being at Barbados. Rev. H. Penna presided during the evening and Miss Stella Fox was heard in two charming solos.

DEGREES CONFERRED.

The St. John Council, K. of C., conferred the second degree last evening on a class of about fifty candidates. E. J. Henneberry, grand knight, presided and the degree was exemplified by officers of the local council. There was a large attendance of members.

Fredrickton Council, Knights of Columbus, were visited last night by many members of the order from other places for the purpose of exemplifying the working of degrees. Among the visiting Knights of Columbus are: A. A. Gardiner, New Haven; John James O'Brien, Connellsville, Pa.; Ed McCarthy, LeBaron LeBlanc, Sorel (Que.); Dr. J. Donnelly, St. La (Que.); D. Flynn, Quebec; John Alphonse Knoff, Le Pique (Que.); J. L. Foley, M. P., La Themess; J. R. Henry, J. Arthur LeBlanc, Campbellton; H. J. Duhe, M. Thierault, George R. Rice, A. C. N. Begin, Edmundston.

MONTREAL GIRL FOUND

DEAD IN BATH TUB

Suddenly on last Sunday afternoon Hazel Bradley, aged 19, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Bradley, of 804 Kingston avenue, Notre Dame de Grace passed away. Coroner McMahon, who was notified of the occurrence held an inquest on the spot and rendered a verdict of natural death.

Miss Bradley was taking a bath and when tea-time arrived she failed to appear at the table. Her parents investigated and found the bathroom door locked. There was no response to their knocking and they forced the door and found the girl lying dead in the bath with her face in a few inches of water. Two doctors were called, but they could do nothing to revive her. There was no evidence of water in the girl's lungs and it is believed that she had taken a fainting spell and died of asphyxiation.

A Personal Touch in Gifts of Apparel

This store's gift stocks are filled to overflowing with odd bits of apparel that women enjoy having. Early selections are advised for your own satisfaction.

GIFT BLOUSES—Endless in variety, elaborately embroidered with metal threads, silk floss or wool; also plain tailored and semi-tailored models for those who prefer them. You may choose from georgettes, crepe-de-chines, messalines, tricolettes, and many dainty tub stuffs.

GIFT LINGERIE—Exquisite hand-work, ribbons and laces adorn Chemises, Night Gowns, Camisoles and other dainty garments. Silks, crepe-de-chines and Satins many times form the foundation of these lovely pieces. Negligees and Boudoir Caps are also very beautiful and decidedly gifty.

GIFT SWEATERS—Everything for outdoor women and girls. Newest models just reach to the waist and have smart tie-back sashes. These are in pretty shades of emerald, Nile, coral and camel. Coat and pull-over Sweaters are in many attractive colors and weaves.

Big Woolly Scarfs also make splendid gifts this year. You will admire the colors and combinations they are made in.

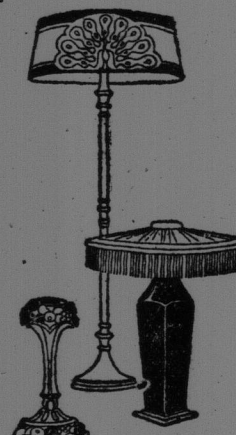

GIFT FROCKS—At this time of year really nothing could be more acceptable. Whether it's for afternoon, evening or practical wear at any time, you can find a suitable model here. Wool Frocks are in Jersey, Serges, Tricotines, etc., handsomely embroidered or embellished with colored pipings, buttons, etc. All the very latest styles are showing. Evening Frocks are in rainbow colors and metallic effects. These are unusually attractive, really the handsomest we have ever shown.

GIFT FURS—Handsome wraps, coats, scarfs, sets, shokers, muffs, etc., in an amazing number of various pelts, delightfully styled, invite your consideration. You will find the prices much more reasonable than you suppose.
