BUSINESS SECURITY.

Covernmental intervention in the affairs of business to passes stagnation; business security and proventies, as in parts of jAsia, government should interfered in the affairs of business. The successful man has always had to run the risk of attack. Safety from unreasonable interference by government or attack by fothers leads the ambitious man on to his greatest exertions. In some countries, as in parts of jAsia, government rapacity has made it dangerous for a man to acquire anything beyond his bare necessities. In such a society nothing but poverty and business stagnation; can exist. Governmental intervention in the affairs of business should extend only over such things as are necessary for fair publicity and truthful statements. Under such a government, business security is at its best. Individuality and initiative are encouraged; the country is progressive, and its future prosperity is well guarded. But as soon as legislation begins to deprive the producer of a square deal, or where business is "regulated" by people without the experience and necessary training, business security will be transformed into business depression. A government should be limited to its curity will be transformed into business depression. A government should be limited to its natural functions of just and reasonable legislation for the greatest good of the greatest number of people, and should never show favors in order to "catch votes" or to secure campaign contributions.
