MRS. TEMPLE'S TELEGRAM AT THE IMPERIAL

Mr. Smith was attending school at Richmond and he well remembered how the clinders fell in all directions. He at one time lived in Dorchester, later in Cole's Island, and recently at the home of Phineas Scary Midgic.

"Mrs. Temple's Telegram" was presented last evening in the Imperial Theatre by local talent to a crowded house, under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. Dramatic Club. The proceeds are for Y. M. C. A. military work overseas.

Although presented in St. John for the first time by amateurs, the acting, in some cases, would do credit to a professional cast. Mrs. A. C. D. Wilson, who was the director of the production, has had much experience in presenting amateur plays.

Between acts, the members of the Young Ladies' League of the Y. M. C. A. sold candy through the audience. The young ladies engaged in this work were Misses Laura Thompson, Ester Wilford, Nina Thompson, Marion Robinson, Marguerite Howe, Winifred Smith, Barbara Clark, Ada Farwell, Florence Titus, Marjorie Simonds, Cline Compton, Margery Staples, Bessie Humphrey and Annie McMichael.

J. L. Robertson, who played the part of "Jack Temple," has appeared in nearly every amateur theatrical performance that has been staged in the city of late years. His acting was excellent. Miss Dorothy Sutton appeared in the role of Mrs. Temple. H. L. Huettis filled the role of the butler. The other members of the cast took their parts in a creditable manner.

The complete cast in order of appearance is as follows:

Wigston, Butler..... Hayward I. Huettis
