The splendid nerve tonic and intestinal antiseptic, combined with the intensified fruit juices, make "Fruit-a-tives" the finest of nerve tonics.

"Fruit-a-tives" is a really wonderful medicine—being made directly from fresh fruit—and is the intended juice of apples, oranges, figs and prunes. "Fruit-a-tives" is the only medicine in the world made of fruit. It is mild in action—pleasant to take—and is a tonic of incalculable value.

WAS TROUBLED WITH Weakness and Palpitation OF THE HEART.
Through one cause or another a large majority of people are troubled, more or less, with some form of heart trouble. Little attention is paid to the slight weakness of the heart, but when it starts palpitate and throb, skip beats, beats fast for a time, then so slow as to seem almost to stop, then it causes great anxiety and alarm.
To all such sufferers Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills can and will give prompt and permanent relief.
They do this by the restorative influence on every organ and tissue of the body.
Mrs. John J. Downey, New Glasgow, N.S., writes:—"Just a few lines to let you know what your Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills have done for me. I was troubled with weakness and palpitation of the heart, would have severe choking spells, and could scarcely lie down at all. I tried many remedies, but got none to answer my case like your pills. I can recommend them highly to all having heart or nerve troubles."

THE COAL TROUBLE IN THE STATES AND ITS EFFECT ON CANADA
This Country Consumes More Than $30,000,000 Worth of Coal From Across Border Every Year
(Montreal Shareholder)
We, in Canada, while interested in the outcome of the British coal miners' strike and affected somewhat by its progress, are likely to be much more vitally affected by the struggle to the south of us. We consume yearly over $30,000,000 worth of American coal, so it is impossible for us to be indifferent to a coal strike in that country. Fortunately the strike is coming at a favorable time of the year, in so far as householders are concerned. In another month or so there will be very little anthracite coal consumed.
On the other hand, however, the consumption of bituminous coal in factories will continue throughout the entire summer. It is believed, however, that the bituminous workers, who number some 200,000 will be able to return to work in another month or six weeks. They have been granted an increase, and as soon as this is ratified by the miners, work will be resumed.
In connection with the anthracite workers there seems to be the prospect of a settlement. The mine owners and miners met on March 13, but adjourned without coming to an agreement. They have now agreed to meet on April 19 and re-open negotiations, but as the miners demand a thirty per cent. increase the prospects of an early settlement did not seem very bright.

The last great strike among American coal miners took place in 1902, when Anthracite and Bituminous miners to the number of 200,000 went out on strike on an average of 53 days per man. In 1904 there was another coal strike, which resulted in 370,000 men going on strike with an average loss of fifty-one days per man. In 1910 another strike occurred among American miners when 210,000 went out on an average of eighty-eight days a man. Since the first big strike in 1902 the consumption of coal has increased 44 per cent., while the customer today is paying about $1 a ton more for his anthracite than he did ten years ago.

If the miners succeed in securing the thirty per cent. increase they are demanding, it will be found that the 100,000,000 consumers of coal on this continent will be forced to pay the bill and pay thirty per cent. more for his coal next year than he has been paying this year. In all these strikes the poor consumer is eventually forced to pay the bill, although he may not be a party to the trouble.

The following shows the status of the anthracite industry:
No. of employees 168,172
No. of collieries 296
No. of mines 751
Production, tons 83,683,929
Explores used 1910 lbs. 57,789,929
Railroads handling production 66.75
New England States 11.44
Southern States 3.38
Western States 11.44
Canada 3.82
Pacific States91

Recent heavy rains in Missouri have made many of the roads in the state practically impassable. At Salisbury and Glasgow the farmers are using mud boats. These have flat bottoms, and a team of horses can haul an average load on them with considerable ease.
