GRAND FALS PAPER MILL.
The Contract Record says that plans are completed for a nine hour paper mill at Grand Falls by a company controlled by the Van Horne interests.
NINE HOURS ON SATURDAY.
The movement which has been on foot for some time among the carpenters of Chatham for a nine hour day on Saturday has culminated in the contractors conceding the men's request.

GOING WEST SOON.
R. P. Stevens, of Newcastle, will leave with his children early in the New Year for Calgary, Alta., where he will spend some time with his sister. He has accepted an important educational position there.
METHODIST BUSINESS MEETINGS.
Rev. Thomas Marshall is in the city attending meetings of the board of trustees of the N. B. and P. E. I. Methodist Conference, which were begun yesterday and concluded today. The meetings were held in Rev. Dr. G. M. Campbell's office. Matters of business, not of a public nature, were dealt with.

MORE LIQUOR CASES.
A. R. Foster, chief of the police on the G. T. P. in New Brunswick, is at the Royal, accompanied by Mrs. Foster and their two sons. Mr. Foster is here to meet Commissioner Ferris, who will arrive in the city tonight. Several charges of legal liquor selling along the G. T. P. in New Brunswick are to be laid before the commissioner by Mr. Foster.

RUSH OF MAIL OVER.
The heavy holiday increase in mail in the Post Office is about at an end. It has been a record season in this regard, a remarkably large quantity of parcels and letters, having been handled. The fourteen extra clerks who have been on duty for the last ten days, will cease their labors this evening. In the railway mail department, however, the extra clerks will continue to work for a little while.

NO ONE VACCINATED.
Once again today a physician was in attendance at the rooms of the Board of Health.

FIRST OF SCHOONERS IN BIG BLIZZARD ARRIVED TODAY
The Luella's Captain Speaks of the Hard Experience in Storm in Which Many Were Lost

One of the fleet of vessels that left Vineyard Haven two weeks ago today, the commencement of the blizzard that caused death and destruction among shipping along the American coast, and one that was in company with the St. John schooner Preference and the Dorchester schooner S. A. Fowkes, which, with others, were abandoned, the schooner Luella, Captain H. S. Chambers, arrived in this port today.

The schooner is the first of those which rode out the storm to reach St. John. She comes to C. M. Kerrison's office, and has a cargo of sand for the Portland Rolling Mills, and is a vessel of but ninety-nine tons.

To bring her, sand laden, through a storm that wrecked crafts of larger size was a task that required the best of skill and seamanship, but, the genial skipper of the Luella, P. O. Far reporter who talked with him in C. M. Kerrison's office this morning, he was loath to talk about the experience, but said:—

"With a fleet of twenty-two schooners we left Vineyard Haven on the Thursday of the storm. The wind was blowing to the westward. When off Cape Cod the wind shifted to the eastward, and increased to sixty and seventy miles an hour, and a blinding snow storm set in. The temperature fell rapidly. Included in the fleet was the S. A. Fowkes, Laura C. Hall, Preference, Jessie Hart 2nd, Abbie G. Cole, John H. Garland, and Mellicie Rhodes. As already told of, the crews of the Fowkes, Cole, Hart, and Preference were taken off, the schooners being wrecked, but nothing was since heard of the John H. Garland or her crew.

"The Rhodes' wrecked hull has been found, and it is likely the crew have perished. The Preference and the Fowkes were close by me when the blow started. Many of the vessels anchored at Chatham and Pollock Rip on Thursday night, and it was Friday morning that the Captain of the Hart reported having seen the Laura C. Hall sweep by him towards the Great Round Shoal. It has never been reported, however, that I saw her the following day, Saturday, off the George's.

"We put right out to sea, but had a bad time of it. The vessel icel up and it was hard to handle her. It was not till Sunday that it quieted down sufficiently for us to put into Portland."

Captain Chambers was the first to sight the missing Consolidation Coal Co's barge No. 12 that had been given up as lost. At the time it had been thought that Captain Chambers' had been mistaken.

Start The New Year Right by Putting A Glenwood Range in Your Kitchen

If you want 1911 to be a happy one and want your home to run smoothly, you want to start at your kitchen and do away with that old stove that spoiled your Christmas dinner and every meal that you have tried to get on it for some time. It is not the fault of the cook or the food you are cooking. It is because the old stove is cracked and the seams sprung and the oven is not tight, therefore the food can not get cooked evenly. If you start on New Year's day with a new Glenwood Range in your home you will have comfort and pleasure the rest of the year and save fuel. All Glenwood Ranges are made in St. John by
