

WILL ILLUMINE NIAGARA FALLS

Maritime Province Man in Charge of Great Lighting Project

W. D'Arcy Ryan of the General
Electric Co. Has Two Brothers in Saint John.

A despatch from Niagara Falls says that in future the falls will be brightly lighted at night and tourists will be able to view them then as well as in the daytime. The man who arranged for the lighting, W. D'Arcy Ryan, is a Maritime Province man, born in Kentville, N. S. Two of his brothers reside in this city, J. G. Ryan, manager of the Canada and Atlantic Cable Co., and J. W. Ryan, manager of the Union Bank of Canada.

Mr. Ryan is one of the best known men in the spectacular lighting field in the world. He had charge of the lighting of the Panama Canal, The Panama-Pacific Exposition and the Centennial Exposition at Rio de Janeiro. He is the inventor of a device that was first used for lighting the falls some time ago. May 23 has been chosen as the night on which the new lighting will be first turned on.

The illumination
Twenty-four powerful 36-inch searchlights, of special design, have been installed by the General Electric Company in Victoria Park on the Canadian side of the falls. Besides illuminating both falls and the rapids, by casting the rays of the 24 lights in one upward beam, a shaft of light visible for 100 miles will be possible. By placing color lenses over the lights and spreading the beams in fan-like arrangement, an aurora far more beautiful and spectacular than provided by nature from the far north can be produced.

Starts Monday
Queen Victoria's birthday anniversary is the date chosen for the official beginning of the illumination. It will be the most powerful single illumination ever undertaken, every electrical innovation applicable having been drafted for service.

Mr. Ryan is director of the illuminating laboratory of the General Electric Company.

Returns Filed With Utilities

Communications received by the Board of Public Utilities report the Matapedia Light and Power Company, supplying current to the Town of Campbellton and that of the Canadian Cottons Ltd., Maysville, supplying the town of Maysville with current.

A copy of the contract between Campbellton and the Matapedia Light and Power Co. has been referred to the Utility Commission for approval. It has been in force since January of this year and the company will receive about $40,000 a year from the town.

The Canadian Cottons Ltd. have been selling current to Maysville since 1916 and the return filed by the company with the Board shows that they receive between $5,000 and $6,000 a year for the current sold.

Liquor and Gas Bad Mixture

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., May 23.—Bootleg liquor and the gas from automobile exhausts were blamed for an increase in throat diseases by Dr. John E. Mackenzie of New York, speaking before the American Laryngological Society here. Dr. Mackenzie said exhaust pipes should be at the top instead of the bottom of automobiles.

MAKING DISPLAY AT LOCAL MUSEUM

At Natural History Society Lecture Room Used For Showing For Visitors.

The Natural History Society is getting ready for the summer season. The season's lectures are as plentiful as bees in a swarm. The lecture room of the society's museum is being turned into a hall for the display of some of the collections of the museum that ordinarily cannot be shown because of lack of space.

A number of interesting articles have been included in the recent donations. F. Ferguson has presented an intricate and beautifully made piece of fretwork of his own manufacture. It is a miniature temple of nice proportions and has its own glass case and stand.

MILITARY RELICS.
Mrs. John A. McAvity has presented a book entitled, "Pictures from English Literature," which contains some good illustrations, reproductions of the work of some of the best known English artists. These pictures are all illustrative of some famous pieces of English literature.

The narrative of the book was written by John Francis Waller. Mrs. Barclay Robinson has given some articles of military uniform that will be welcome additions to the museum's collection.

Mr. Alfred Morrissey has given a specimen lobster, prepared as a museum exhibit by a resident of Grand Manan, who claims to have discovered the process of keeping a lobster in its natural colors without tinting.

Mrs. George Topping has given the museum two volumes of impressive size. They are two of a series which form the complete "Comprehensive Commentary of the Holy Bible," and were published in 1885 and 1886.

One volume has the commentary on the books from Genesis to Judges and the second from Ruth to Malachi. The very lengthy title page inscription gives the information that these volumes have Scott's marginal references and are Matthew Henry's commentary edited by Rev. William Jenks.

Thieves Get $28; Rifles and Watch

Petty thieves who have been operating in the city for the last few weeks transferred their activities to West Saint John yesterday, when two breaks occurred. Maurice H. Tuttle, who conducts a grocery store in Guilford street, was robbed of $28, while Patrick Keane, who operates a restaurant in Union street, lost two rifles and a gold watch.

Mr. Tuttle's building is being painted, and while he was out the yard superintendent part of the work the thief or thieves entered the store and took $28 from the till. The detectives are investigating the matter.

DERBY BETTING.

United Press.
LONDON, May 23.—The latest betting prices for the Derby which will be run on Wednesday are as follows: 9 to 1 against Cross-Bow and Manna; 10 to 9 against Conquistador; 100 to 8 against Ptolemy; 100 to 8 against Solario; 18 to 1 against Runnymede and St. Brian; 20 to 1 against Zlonist; 22 against Dignity; 40 to 1 against Victor, Priory Park and Pons Ailnorum; and 50 to 1 against the others.

A Clear $100 Less in Price

Magistrate Henderson, in Juvenile Session, Comments on Conditions

Warns That Lads Are Getting Into Bad Habits—Cases Are Detailed.

Four juvenile cases were given a hearing before Magistrate Henderson in the police court this morning. The number of cases and the seriousness of one of them elicited comment from His Honor. He said he was sorry to see so many boys getting into trouble and forming habits that would harm them.

Magistrate Henderson said he would let the boys go with a warning, but if they were before him again on a similar charge it would not be so lenient. He would impose a fine on the parents.

Three pleaded guilty to a report of missing admittance to the Queen Square Theatre yesterday without paying admission. The proprietor said he had difficulty with boys in this respect.

J. Boyd McMann, trustee officer, stated the proprietor to refuse admittance to boys during school hours and report them to him.

Magistrate Henderson said he would let the boys go with a warning, but if they were before him again on a similar charge it would not be so lenient. He would impose a fine on the parents.

A report against boys from St. James street, charged with throwing stones and breaking windows in Gandy & Allison's warehouse to the value of $30, came up this morning. A list of other boys who also threw stones was handed in, and they will be asked to appear in court on Tuesday and Thursday.

There will not be any class this afternoon, the regular afternoons for these being on Tuesdays and Thursdays.

COLLISION.
About 9 o'clock last evening auto driven by Royden Foley and J. J. Driscoll were in collision in the Loch Lomond road. Mr. Foley's car was just leaving his own ground, and Mr. Driscoll's car was moving straight ahead when the accident occurred. It was a side-on collision, and Mr. Driscoll's car was spun around and lost a wheel.

VANDALISM.
A lady traveling through the city went into the ladies' waiting room at the Union Station and was amazed to see the mirror over the wash basin disfigured with initials, evidently done with a sharp instrument. She was so shocked that she called the police.
