SHE WAS SURPRISED

Mrs. R. Smith, of Wainwright, Man., tells an interesting story of relief from almost intolerable sufferings.

"I can hardly tell you how great my sufferings have been. Chronic liver complaint accompanied by biliousness was a daily source of trial to me. Every day I experienced the effects of these ailments. I looked for some medicine that should permit me to live them away."

Hearing of Dr. Moore's Indian Root Pills, I thought they were worthy of a trial. My surprise was indeed great. From the very first I experienced relief. Continuing with them I found my troubles were slowly but surely being cured, and before long I once more saw what I was to be free from the meaning effects of the ailments that had long afflicted and weakened me. So great is my faith in Dr. Moore's Indian Root Pills that I shall never on any account be without them."

NO DOUBT ABOUT THIS

Even if England did decide to give us a preference and tax her people's food, what would she ask in return? A preference upon her manufactures. Then indeed would you see the Tories and the manufacturers hold up their hands in holy horror."

Y. M. S. ST. JOSEPH MAKE PRESENTATION TO REV. FATHER DUKE

That the Canadian Pacific Railway is ready and anxious to go ahead with the work of constructing their new yards at Blue Rock is the encouraging message which Mayor Frink brought back from Montreal after a conference with the heads of the road.

During his visit to Montreal the mayor succeeded in settling the problems which have hindered the completion of the transfer of the West St. John harbor lots. All that remains to be done is the formalities connected with the signing of the necessary papers.

His worship says that the C. P. R. is anxious to proceed with the important work they have planned for the construction of new yards. The federal government has called for tenders for the construction of the sea wall and as fast as this is built the C. P. R. will fill in the land behind it.

The completion of the agreement will also enable the government to go ahead with the construction of the new wharves planned at Sand Point.

Mayor Frink had nothing to add regarding his telegram to the common council urging that steps be taken to make the proposed subsidy for the steel shipbuilding plant available except that he thought it

C. P. R. READY FOR WORK ON THE NEW SAND POINT WHARVES

Rev. William M. Duke, who is to be transferred from this city to Moncton, was last evening tendered a farewell reception by the members of the Young Men's Society of St. Joseph, in their rooms, St. Michael's Hall. The esteem in which Father Duke is held by the members was fittingly demonstrated by the large attendance, the spacious room being well filled. Though informal, the programme was of a very touching nature and consisted of a presentation by the members to their spiritual director, and several addresses. The presentation of a well filled purse of gold and a case of pipes was made by William Magee, the president, who took occasion to refer to the excellent work accomplished by Father Duke during his directorship.

Other addresses of regret at his departure were made by H. G. McInerney, Edward Moran and George Cunningham. In his reply Father Duke thanked the members for their congratulations, and expressed his stand fast to the high ideals held out by their society.

TRAGEDY OF THE MOUNTAINS

Vienna, Sept. 8.—A party of tourists consisting of two ladies and one gentleman, undertook the ascent of the Great Pyrgus at the end of last week. The ladies, who were young and unmarried, were accompanied by a gymnasium professor named Ludwig Borobski, of Brunn. The ladies were not provided with suitable garments, nor with the proper implements for climbing.

As the party disappeared last Saturday, great anxiety was felt in the neighborhood, especially at other tourists and that they had seen nothing of them. Three expeditions were dispatched from Admon on Saturday, the parents of one of the ladies offered a reward for her recovery. One Monday the three corpses were found on the mountain side.

A LITTLE DUBIOUS. Johnny Bilkin, and everybody in the neighborhood seemed very much interested in the newcomer. On his way to school in the morning, he was frequently stopped by passers-by with inquiries as to the state of things at home. The last individual of record to inquire was the clergyman, who reports the following.

"Ah, Johnny, my lad," said the reverend gentleman. "I understand that you have a bouncing boy up at your house."

"I dunno," said Johnny. "I'll never see him bounce—I don't think they've thrown him down hard enough to find out yet."

The clergyman smiled broadly, and went on to the next question. "Well, I hope he is a good baby," he suggested.

"Oh, I guess he is," said Johnny dubiously. He don't smoke or drink any, but sometimes he seems to me to sweat some.—Harper's Weekly.

WHY THEY WANT RECIPROCITY.

WHY THEY WANT RECIPROCITY.

Toronto Globe. It is because the politicians of the United States have entered into a conspiracy with the Government of Canada to compass annexation that the United States offers to let Canadian wheat, barley, butter, cream, milk, cheese, cattle, sheep, hogs, vegetables, fruit, and many other food products into that country duty free? "Was started the cry in the United States for reciprocity? It was the high cost of living, and the fact that the meat trade and the canning business and the supply of prepared foodstuffs generally had fallen into the hands of rings and trusts. Here is an illustration from a Cleveland paper of the way in which food taxation was hammered in the United States during the elections of last November—

"When you have the Sunday dinner ready and rings the good old dinner bell, tariff-taxed 45 per cent., the hungry 'tribe' hustles for the dining-room. "You and Willie and Lucy are seated on chairs, taxed 35 per cent., facing a table, also taxed 35 per cent., before the last dog has faded away. "Then grasping a knife and fork, both tariff-taxed 40 per cent., you carefully gather the napkin, taxed only 1.34 cents and an additional 30 per cent. If it is just ordinary linen, and reminding Willie not to place his dripping spoon, taxed not less than 40 per cent., on the clean table cloth, taxed not to exceed 9 cents a square yard, with an additional 30 per cent., you start in. "No brains in the roast, beef, taxed 1.12 cents a pound, or maybe it's chicken, taxed 5 cents a pound, in a nice large platter, taxed 55 per cent., which, by the way, is the Payne-Aldrich tax on all the dishes on the table. "No, think that Willie and Lucy should not drink coffee, so into their 55 per cent. tariff-taxed cups she pours some chocolate, tariff-taxed 2.12 cents a pound, and some cream which is also taxed 5 cents a gallon in the tariff bill because two or three months' dairy concerns in the United States needed protection against the pauper cows of Canada. "Maybe you and your wife will take hot-milk, and there's a tariff on that, too—2 cents a gallon. "Then the real business of the hour begins in earnest! "Scattered in tempting display over the laden table, your roving eye finds bread, taxed 20 per cent., through the flour in it; butter, taxed 4 cents a pound; beefs 23 per cent.; beans, 2.12 cents a pound; pickles and sauce, 40 per cent.; cabbage, 2 cents a head; honey, 20 per cent.; potatoes, 25 cents a bushel; onions, 40 per cent., and cranberries, 25 per cent. "Between bites Willie tries to decide whether to take a double helping of the rice pudding, tariff-taxed 2 cents a pound for the rice, sugar, taxed 1.91 cents a pound, and raisins, 2.12 cents a pound, or one helping of the pudding and a piece of peach cobbler—peaches tariff-taxed 25 per cent. "When hunger is finally appeased time can be taken, while chewing the toothpick, taxed 2 cents per 100 and an added 10 per cent. on their wholesale value, to gaze at the flowers, taxed 25 per cent., which 30 cents bought at the corner florist's, to make this Sunday dinner a little different from the week-day affairs. "While Willie and Lucy are calmly munching their candy, taxed all the way up to 50 per cent., he makes for his hair pie, taxed 35 per cent., and fills it with scrap tobacco, taxed 35 cents a pound, and mops clean up the table. "Oh, yes, to go back to the beginning of this Sunday dinner, the blessing that pa asked on the tariff-taxed food was not taken in the Payne-Aldrich bill. "That article shows why Uncle Sam snow offering to throw off the duties on Canadian foodstuffs."

"Mr. Flavell will take a hog into his establishment, cut it in two, and set one half aside for sale in Toronto at 22 cents a pound, while the other is shipped to Liverpool to be sold at 18 cents a pound. Is that fair play for the Canadian consumer?" —Hugh Guthrie.
