Why
Purity
Is What
It Is

"The more you eat it the better you like it," is what folks say about
PURITY ICE CREAM;
but

WHY?

Because rich, fresh cream, natural flavors and other good things, equally pure, are so skillfully blended into a velvety, smooth, frozen dainty, then

LEWISTON RACES

(Special to Times.)

Lewiston, Me., Sept. 7.—The racing yesterday was the best of the week with considerable excitement. The 218 pace was a get-to between Irving Pottle with the Portland mare Wilvena C, and S. B. Hastings with his gelding, Arrow Tranby. Tranby was pocketed to the stretch by Dewey and beaten in the first heat. He got out and won in the second and third, but the Portland mare took the next two. Hastings, of Boston, was called to the stand and said that he had to do all his driving on the stretch and was doing the best he could. In the 224 pace Bradford, owner and driver of Peter Florentine, was taken off after being warned, and Bill Fleming put up but failed to better his position. Eva Frico of W. A. Newbert's Boston stable, took the 214 stake in straight heats from a fast and fighting field. Violet Patch, an old Maine campaigner, went to a new win race mark of 2:12 1/2 in the 212 pace. Earl Jr., 2:01 1/2, a famous grand circuit performer, now trained to trot driverless, made what is claimed a world's record of 2:17 on Tuesday and did the mile a second slower yesterday.

FAIR ST. JOHN
The Loyalist City

HOLDS OUT THE HAND OF WELCOME TO EXHIBITION VISITORS

WELCOME

The big Fair is drawing to a close, but it is now at its best, which is the best time to see it; so pack your bag and take the next train to the metropolis of the Province.

Arrange to do your Fall shopping. You will find the St. John stores brim full of Seasonable merchandise. If you are lucky enough to own a car, by all means come by car.

You may park it at the following places:

RULES FOR PARKING

King Square, north and south; King street East (except in front of fire station); Peel street, Chipman Place (near High School grounds, Y. M. C. A. and Library buildings); Canterbury street, south of Princess; all Broad street, near Exhibition grounds.

Cars must be parked at an angle and away from fire hydrants and street corners. Cars may stand in front of business houses long enough to do necessary shopping.

And if you wish to stay overnight to do a day's shopping and don't know where to stop, just get a list of rooming houses from any of the following drug stores:

Brown's Pharmacy, corner Princeess and Sydney.
Walker's Pharmacy, corner Charlotte and Duke.
The Modern Pharmacy, corner
Charlotte and Prince.
The Ross Drug Co., 100 King St.

STEAL DIAMONDS
IN MONTREAL

Montreal, Sept. 7.—A woman made off with a tray of twelve rings valued at $900 while a man who had entered the store with her held up the proprietor, A. Kramer, a St. Catherine's street jeweler, at the point of a revolver yesterday afternoon. The pair made a clean getaway.

Flies Around Alps.

Berne, Sept. 7.—Lieut. Mueller of the Swiss army won the contest in the flight around the Alps, in the international aviation meet at Zurich yesterday. He covered the distance in eight hours through heavy clouds which made the flying difficult over the high Alpine heights. The majority of the other contestants withdrew.
