

The Senate gives notice that in view of arrangements whereby the degree of Bachelor in Divinity may be open to the students of this College, it will be necessary so to alter the honour course as to make it coincide with the curriculum to be prescribed to candidates for that degree. While this change will come into effect as soon as the curriculum is published it will not affect candidates for honours during the present Academic year.

All French Students and Students preparing for French Work are required to attend the Homiletical Lectures in French, and English Students who understand French are urged to do the same. Students taking this course and passing examination in it are exempted from examination in the Biblical History of the first year, the Apologetics of the second, and the Exegesis of the third. In the honour work they may also take the examinations in Latin, Greek and Hebrew authors, and Calvin, in French, instead of English. In the first year they may exchange Blaikie's "For the Work of the Ministry" for the French edition of Vinet's Homiletics; in the second year, Farrar for Guizot, Méditations sur la Religion Chrétienne; and in the third year, Walker for De Félice, Histoire des Protestants de France. Students intending to exercise these options must give notice to the Principal or French Lecturer, at least three weeks before the sessional examinations.

French Students are not required to give more than one of their College Exercises in English, and at least two of them must be in French. These French Exercises will be prescribed by the French Lecturer.

While French Students are eligible for all the Scholarships and other rewards of the Theological course, in consideration of the disadvantage at which they are placed by pursuing their studies in both languages, certain scholarships are offered for competition to them, along with those taking the Literary course, the subjects of examination for which will be found under the head of Literary Curriculum for French Students.

MEDALS, SCHOLARSHIPS, CERTIFICATES OF HONOUR, &c.

The following distinctions and rewards are open to competition in the theological course:
