

Defending
Officer:

Yes, sir.

Prosecutor:

I would suggest an adjournment until 1500 hours, sir, in order that The Defending Officer might have the benefit of the afternoon mail coming in.

Court:

Very well, this case will stand adjourned until 1500 hours on the 4th day of March, 1946.

At 1540 hours on the 28th day of February, 1946, the Court adjourned.

At 1500 hours on the 4th day of March, 1946, the Court is re-opened.

Court:

I understand you are not ready to proceed with this case.

Prosecutor:

That's right, sir. In the Interests of the accused I would like to adjourn until 1400 hours on the 6th of March, 1946.

Court:

How about 1000 hours on the 6th of March?

Defending
Officer:

That is satisfactory to the Defence sir.

Court:

Very well, this court will stand adjourned until 1000 hours on the 6th day of March, 1946.

At 1505 hours on the 4th day of March, 1946, the Court Adjourned.

At 1000 hours on the 6th day of March, 1946, the Court is re-opened.

Court:

Are you ready to proceed?

Prosecutor:

Yes, sir.

Court:

Has any information been received as to these telegrams which the accused indicates in his evidence have been sent?

Prosecutor:

Yes, sir, enquiries were made and a reply has been received.

Court:

Have you any objection to the reply in full being given or general information concerning it?
