Crowning of the The Coronation of Their Majesties Took Place To-Day—Impressive Ceremony at Westminster Abbey—Scenes of Enthusiasm in the Streets of London. Streets of London. Sovereign s Raes, Rad not the King Tenderly, But Firmly grasped both the prelate's hands and lifted him to his feet. The Bishops of Winchester and Durham clasped their arms around the Archbishop of Canterbury, the King kissed his wrinkled hand, the Archbishop's head fell back, his feet moved slowly and medically, and thus he was more carried than led from the throne to St. Edward's chapel, where he was revived. The tremor which this event caused had scarcely subsided when another exquisitely human touch varied the proceedings and the King was forgotten in the father. Instead of merely accepting the homage of the Prince of Wales, the King put his arms round the Prince of Wales, the King put his arms round the Prince of Wales, the King put his arms round the Prince of Wales, the King put his arms round the Prince of Wales, the King put his arms round the Prince of Wales, the King put his arms round the Prince of Wales, the King put his arms round the Prince of Wales, the King put his arms round the Prince of Wales, the King put his arms round the Prince of Wales, the King was forgotten in the father. Instead of merely accepting the homage of the Prince of Wales, the King put his arms round the Prince of Wales, the King was forgotten in the father. Instead of merely accepting the homage of the Prince of Wales, the King was forgotten in the father. Instead of merely accepting the homage of the Prince of Wales, the King was forgotten in the father. Instead of merely accepting the homage of the Prince of Wales, the King was forgotten in the father. Instead of merely accepting the homage of the Prince of Wales, the King was forgotten in the father. Instead of merely accepting the homage of the Prince of Wales, the King was forgotten in the father. Instead of merely accepting the homage of the Prince of Wales, the King was forgotten in the father. Instead of m

Streets of London.

London, Aug. 9.—A brilliant sunrise promised perfect weather for Coronation Day, but long before the ceremonies commenced threatening clouds gathered and the enryly arrivals on the route of the procession came included against contingencies. The earlier crowds were in mowise as large as it had been generally anticipated they would be. Many entactivated they would be. Many entactivated they would be many entactive the celebration was impressive, and it was carried out with a prestive, and it was carried the many entactive the population of detail and lack of accident in all respect the celebration was impressive, and it was carried the many entactive of provender, had spent the cupants of the state coach. might on the best coigns of vantage that could be secured, and were in the same position at 6 o'clock this morning.

state coaches, carriages and automobiles, rattled up in a ceaseless line, the rich apparel of their occupants eliciting hearty approval, which however, was surpassed by the reception accorded to the r decorated with the customary mirrors,

AT THE ABBEY.

The regalia was reconsecrated in the Abbey at 10 o'clock, the choir singing "Oh God, Our Help in Ages Past."

The street barriers were closed at 10 o'clock. Prince Minister Balfour and Lord Rosebery were caught outside. They were obliged to alight from their carriages and walk to the Abbey. At 10 o'clock the King's nurses who attended of persons every few minutes into the streets east of Temple Bar because to take up their albored stations, and policemen, Queen—The Ceremony.

Scene on the Arrival of the King and Queen—The Ceremony.

The regalia was reconsecrated in the Abbey at 10 o'clock, the choir singing "Oh God, Our Help in Ages Past."

The street barriers were closed at 10 o'clock. Prince Minister Balfour and Lord Rosebery were caught outside. They were obliged to alight from their carriages and walk to the Abbey. At 10 o'clock the King's nurses who attended him during his late illness drove up to the Abbey in a royal carriage as guests of His Majesty. They received an ovation from the crowd. The children of the King.

Lord Roberts (commander-in-chief of the forces) was once more the hero of the hour, and next to the King himself, received the heartiest welcome of the Abbey at 10 o'clock, the choir singing "Oh God, Our Help in Ages Past."

The street barriers were closed at 10 o'clock. Prince Minister Balfour and Lord Rosebery was not so easily recognized, but he was seen as he rode with Gaselee and Admiral Sir Edward Hobart Seymour, and was the crowd's next favorite.

But it was for the King and Queen the heart extreet the heartiest welcome of the Abbey in a royal carriage as guests of His Majesty. They received an ovation from the crowd. The children of the King and next to the King himself, received the heartiest welcome of the Abbey in all the reserve power of British lungs to be brought into play. Lord Roteches "Hero comes good old Bobs," was invariably the signal for all the reserve power of British lungs to be brought into play. Lord Roteches, "Hero comes of the Abbey in a royal carriage as guest, o and genuine sympathy for the man, ra-ther than adulation of the King.

cupants of the royal box, immediately after they were seated, buried their heads in the huge red programme.

As the King's procession emerged on the Horse Guards parade

The Enthusiasm of the Crematal form the archway of Buckingham Palace, the horses of the troopers curvetting nervously as they faced the wall of humanity that

Relieved the Tedium of the Early Waiting,

Then, began the impressive service in connection with the coronation of the King. The service, which as mentioned in these dispatches yesterday, find been considerably curtailed.

After the recognition of His Majesty

After the recognition of His Majesty

Then, began the impressive service in connection with the coronation of the King. The service, which as mentioned in these dispatches yesterday, find been considerably curtailed.

After the recognition of His Majesty

Then, began the impressive service in connection with the coronation of the King. The service, which as mentioned in these dispatches yesterday, find been considerably curtailed.

After the recognition of His Majesty

tion of the proceedings being concluded at 12.37 p. m. The actual coronation of the naval brigade as they marked past at a swinging pace to take mean the Abbey.

The Colonial Premiers and the privy councillors were warmly welcomed, the Fijians, in petticoats, the centre of much interest, and a Red Indian chief, in his native costume, feathers and blanket, decorated with the customary mirrors, Nothing Less Than Marvelous.

The Queen was crowned at 12.56 p. m. decorated with the customary mirrors, caused the most lively amusement, As the hour appointed for the despate the decirement about Backingham Priace was most marked.

Functual to the time the advance gand of the Royal procession approached, the sectionest about Backingham Priace was most marked.

Functual to the time the advance gand of the Royal procession approached the section of the Royal procession approached to the time the advance gand of the too green section of the secti Confessional of the Regalia.

The procession of clergy with the regalia then proceeded from the altar to the annex, all present standing up and the choir singing "O God, Our Help in Ages Past." Preceding the regalia cane the boys of Westminster Albey, followed by the children of the Chapel Royal and the choir in sovil uniform

nointing ceremony was Scarcely Seen owing to the canopy. The spectators were just able to discern the Arch-bishop's motions.

After the prayer the King donned coland from a scarlet silken roll, on which the prayers were printed in large type, and which was held by the Dean or Westminster, the Archbishop of Canterbury read the prayers and delivered the sword to the King, who did not go to the altar, the sword being taken to him by the Dean of Westminster, while His Majesty remained standing. The arcille and the orb were then delivered to the King, according to the programme. The actual coronation of the King took place at 12:39 p.m.

the boys of Westminster Albey, followed by the children of the Chapel Royal and the choir in royal uniform.

The head of the procession reached the Abbey at 10.50 a.m. Ten minutes later the Prince and Princess of Wales arrived. The Prince took his place in the Abbey in a chair directly in front of the peers at 11.15 a.m. The children of the Prince and Princess of Wales arrived. The Prince took his place in the Abbey in a chair directly in front of the peers at 11.15 a.m. The children of the Prince and Princess of Wales in white sailor suits, who were the first occupants of the royal box, immediately after they were seated, buried their heads in the hugs red programme.

The Duke of Connaught took his place beside the Prince of Wales in the Abbey, as the procession entered, bowing as he passed the Prince. The Archbishop of Canterbury took his seat in front of the coronation chair and then Baron Halsbury, the Lord High Chancellor, seated himself by his side.

Several minutes elapsed, however, before the King and Queen came in sight of those gathered about the throne. Suddenly "Vivat Alexandra!" was shouted by the boys of Westminster Abbey, and the Queen walked slowly to the left of the throne, gained her chair and knelt at the silken Pric Dieu, her magnificent train of cloth of gold being lifted out of her way by six scarlet pages.

Two or three minutes later came the hoarse cry from the Westminster boys will have a full pack, and it is expected the bulk of the business was considered over for the year. Most of the canneries will have a full pack, and it is expected the bulk of the business was considered over for the year. Most of the canneries will have a full pack, and it is expected the bulk of the business was considered over for the year. Most of the canneries will have a full pack, and it is expected the bulk of the business was considered over for the year. Most of the canneries will have a full pack, and it is expected. FROM THE NORTH.

During the last 48 hours two of the C. P. N. fleet returned to port.

The Princess Louise arrived yesterday from Northern British Columbia ports, brings almost a record complement of passengers, who, however, did not come on to this city, many, in fact the major number of them, landing at Vancouver. There were a total of 93 in the saloor and 60 on deck, these latter being Chine rean canneries. Among the arrivals on the steamer were J. Murray, the timber inspector, who has been up to the Naas river on official business; Mrs. Callaghan, the wife of the telegraph operator at Port Simpson, and her family, and J. T. Phalen, one of the officials of the telegraph line on the Skeena, and party of seven or eight, who have been working on the line along the river.

Fishing continued in the north at the time the steamer left for Victoria, but the bulk of the business was considered.

the Horse Guards parade on the constantly arriving members of the constantly arriving the cortical arriving in the constant of the constantly arriving arriving members of the constantly arriv territory, and the flag of no nation floats over it; but Mexicans have laid some claim to it and Britain has no desire to dispute their right of way. There may

THE PRISONER

Who escapes from jail is by no means free. He is under the ban of the law and punishment is written over against caught again and bear added punishment for his short escape from his cell.

Those who by the use of palliative
powders and tablets escape for a time from the sufferings of dyspepsia are in the same condition as the escaped prisical Discovery." There is nothing "just as good" for diseases of the stomach, blood and lungs.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets stimulate also be other reasons why the British have determined on leaving the island severely alone, but that mentioned appears to be the only one attributed.

The Blakeley, it is expected, will be sold, although just what will be done in the matter cannot now be stated. In WANT CANADIAN SERVICE.

"Arrows Transport of the expedition.

BRITISH SHIPPING.

According to the Board of Trade figures the respective positions in the shipping trade, including, of course, both

The Blakeley, it is expected, will be sold, although just what will be done in the matter cannot now be stated. In WANTI CANADIAN SERVICE.

"Arrangement are in progress by which the Canadian Pacific steamers may be used in conjunction with the American lines and room Skagway, says the Seattle Post-Intelligencer." Prost-Intelligencer. "Fost-Intelligencer." The States mail to and from Skagway, says the Seattle Post-Intelligencer. "Fost-Intelligencer." The States mail to and from Skagway, says the Seattle Post-Intelligencer. "Fost-Intelligencer." The States mail to and from Skagway, says the Seattle Post-Intelligencer. "Fost-Intelligencer." The States mail to and from Skagway, says the Seattle Post-Intelligencer. "Fost-Intelligencer." The States mail to and from Skagway run. They stop on by Assistant Death of mails will be facilitated both by of mails will be facilitated both by of mails will be facilitated both by of the increased number of sailings and the text that Vancouver, from which will from Skagway run. They stop also at Ketchikan, but at no other commodities for the detention of the steamer lumatilla from Skagway run. They stop also at Ketchikan, but at no other places. Each makes the round trip in a first more than six days. Mr. Colket, after investigating the matter once, decided that the plan of sending mail on these boats was not a good one, but on one of sending mail on these boats was not a good one, but on one of sending mail on the sea at sea, and after repairs were effected the steamer had to come along flowly. She brought sixteen saloon passes, for the decided to the post office dear the sea of the camadian line be utilized. The state of the season of the sea may be maintained without expenditure to the post office department, as an interchange of mail in this way is often made. The service will be put in effect soon, in the expectation of the postal authorities here. The news will be welcome to the people of Skagway, as such an arangement will give them eight or ten additional mails a month."

A lating increase

A lating increase

A lating increase

They were obliged to alight from their tame annihered of specificors, subtract the state of the procession according to the procession of the procession were in the procession while the marked procession while the procession were in the procession while the proc and big wages were offered for the voyage.

RETIRE FROM P. C. S. S. CO.

On September 15th, Goodall, Perkins & Co. will retire as agents of the Pacific Coast Steamship Company, and the affairs of the company will after that date be looked after by a manager whose name has not yet been announced. The headquarters of the company will continue to be in San Francisco. The contract between Goodall, Perkins & Co. and the Pacific Coast Steamship Company contains a clause to the effect that either party to the contract may cancel the same by edinar microscomment.

A PROTEST.

Redmond Says King Edward Is Not Monarch of Ireland. either party to the contract may cancel pamy contains a clause to the effect that either party to the contract may cancel the same by giving nine months' notice. Last winter Goodail, Perkins & Co. gave such notice, assigning as the reason that their other interests would not permit of their continuing to act as agents.

REFUSED DUTY.

An interesting police court case was tried in Vancouver, Ten men from the steamship Empress of Japan were accessed by Capt. Pybus of refusing duty. Capt. Pybus states that there were indications of a typhoon, and he ordered the men to go below and shift cargo. They refused to go because Capt. Pybus declined to promise overtime pay for the work. The contention was that such matters could always be referred to the arbitration of the shipping master at the home port of the steamship, and that a sailor should never refuse duty. The men are said to have been off duty when ordered below. Police Magistrate Russell has reserved judgment.

Bussell has reserved judgment.

Bussell has reserved judgment.

and other diseases of the stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition. Its cures are lasting.

The about two years are lasting.

The special correspondence of the The polythat we shall soon have the lights on the which and nutrition. Its cures are lasting.

The special correspondence of the The thousands of the which and nutrition. Its cures are lasting.

The special correspondence of the The thousands of the suprise of many the American ship Fort George has arrived safely at the holosular eready for the polythat we shall soon have the lights on the we ship for more provided as formed the polythat we shall soon have the lights on the country of the suprise of many the American ship Fort George has arrived safely at the holosular eready for the polythat we shall soon have the lights on the country of the suprise of many the American ship Fort George has arrived safely at the holosular eready for the polythat we shall soon have the light in many of the building thown. The holes are ready for the polythat we shall soon have the light in many of the polythat we shall soon have the light in many of the polythat we shall soon have the light in many of the polythat we shall soon have the light in many of the polythat we shall soon have the light in many of the polythat we shall soon have the light in many of the polythat we shall soon have the light in many of the polythat we shall soon have the light in many of the polythat we shall soon have the light in many of the polythat we shall soon have the light in the lectric light in many of the polythat we shall soon have the light in many of the polythat we shall soon have the light in many of the polythat we shall soon have the light in many of the polythat we shall soon have the light in the lectric light in many of the polythat we shall soon have the light in which we write shall safe the polythat we shall soon have the light in the lectric light in many of the polythat we write safely at the moly and polythat have polythat the subject of the city many of the polyth any event the ship has to be in port 48 dam convinced it has in my case ac dam convers. It can conscient the following convers. It can conscient to most the thousands of dystom consubstitute for "Golden Medicovery." There is nothing "just of meet the claims of her crew for wages is the expectation of not a few of her owning company. The men, in nearly all instances, have worked partially on wages and partially on commission, and were to take a portion of their earnings out in stock. There is on the medical fraternity had pronounced hopeless. Sold by Jackson & Co. and Hall & Co.—140.

mission, has been placed on the non-effective list and will be sold out of the navy. The Icarus was built 15 years-ago at a cost of £58,043, and served four-

NEAR VAN ANDA

A Woman Crushed to Death-J. J. Hill

(Special Correspondence of the Times.)
The Hinton Electric Co. is busy installing electric 'light in many of the buildings in town. The holes are ready for the poles, so that we shall soon have the lights on our treater.

KING ED

HE OFFERS

Hopes It Will

London, Aug manner by nation of Osl favorite reside The gift is r

"Buckingham beloved mothe tate is, as M year in the ca in its neighb county of Nor for nearly 40 Osborne House accordingly has property in the those apartm > people shall alv with her belo "As regards navy and ar impaired in re-country.

"If, in order to the King's application to the King trusts see that the nec London, Aug.

torian Order. CHEMA Bush Fires Ar Damage—Tow

a privy council Palace, at which few days this p threatened by bu day afternoon n ed that the Che save the town l and a large cretall around the towards the bus such prompt ste no doubt but thave been destructional and the control of the co had a great deal around their cam bridges burned o interruptions to The Chilian bar yesterday afterno lumber for the V Hotel Burned-

San Angelo, Te Landon hotel was loss of $75,000. known to have bee guests of the hote thought to be safe sons in the hotel.

DOHER New York, Aug. lawn tennis double brothers, of Englar Davis, the United S