

tained by the application of such tests as each professor or teacher may deem best. The written examination standing shall be given for written answers to questions prepared as provided for above, and shall be determined by the person who reads and values the answers. At least 33 per cent. must be obtained upon the written examination in each department.

5. The rank of a student in each department of study shall be determined by the standing he receives. A student will be ranked in the third class on a standing of 40 per cent.; in the second class on a standing of 60 per cent.; and in the first class on a standing of 75 per cent.

6. The standing on which a student is ranked as passing in the third, second or first class shall be ascertained as follows:

The standing in each department shall be determined by dividing by two the sum of the class standing and the written examination standing, except in the senior year in Arts and Theology. In determining the standing in these senior years, the class standing shall be reckoned as one-third and the written examination standing as two-thirds.

7. Standings shall be reported to the Secretary of the Senate on blanks provided for that purpose. Class standings must be so reported at least two days before the written examination commences. No professor, teacher or associate examiner shall be at liberty to divulge the standings reported to the Secretary of the Senate.

8. It shall be the duty of the Principals of the several Faculties to have kept a proper record of the results of the various examinations, as reported to the Secretary of the Senate.

9. The rank of each successful candidate in an examination, but not the percentage obtained, shall be published in The Canadian Baptist, and in such other papers as each Faculty may determine. The names thus published shall be arranged in each case alphabetically.

10. Students in Arts or Theology, who fail in any subject
