Miramichi Advance. CHATHAM, N. B., MARCH 9, 1893.

It appears a very absurd thing that the Dominion Government should make a childish attempt to conceal the fact that its sugar duties are among the most objectionable of its protective features.

The government's ability to gauge the extent of Mr. Cartwright's knowledge of the sugar question encourages Senator Drummond to appear in the Toronto Empire with a letter, which has been dutifully copied in all the government organs, with the intimation, in general terms, that the senator has routed the ex-finance minister.

Senator Drummond's letter, which the Toronto Empire has a mixture of truth and fiction. It is a mixture of truth and fiction.

ted to their chamber the governor would retire and the session proceed. Several days used to be wasted after the opening, before the business of the session was brought on by the consideration of the address, but in late years, the Blair administration has followed the more practical course of having the address read immediately after the return of the members of Assembly to their chamber.

We are not informed, nor have we seen any intimation of what the formalities are to be to-day. There will, of course, be no legislative council and no black rod, consequently there will be no gymnasium and no trooping of the members of the house upstairs and sending of them back again to elect a Speaker. One wag has suggested that when the governor goes down to the House to open it, the lieutenant of the opposition—Mr. Pitts who represents York—is going to tell him to go back again and that they will send for him when they have chosen a Speaker, but it is probable that Mr. Stetson will be able to repress his friend until some later period in the session, and that Mr. Blair will be permitted to control the procedure, and to have everything will be done decently and in order.

wise and without vindictiveness. Our mission is not punishment, but the remedying of wrongs. Anxiety for redemption of pledges which my party has made and solicited, for a complete justification of the trust the people have reposed in us, constrain me to remind those with whom I am co-operating that we can succeed in doing work that has been especially asked for only by the most sincere, harmonious and disinterested effort.
