Letters of administration cum testaments of the public buildings appear about the center of the city, in the vicinity of the public buildings. The side walks are mostly of wood,—very little paving in asphalt, some of the main streets are fairly well macadamized. They have a good system of water works and excellent water, but no system of severage yet. The most of the cottages especially in the suburbs of the town are neat residences and are through the island; the snug farms and farm houses indicate that the people are in very comfortable circumstances.
