UNDECIDED!

Well, it's not such a hard matter to decide the Clothes question. A little shopping round and watching the advertisements will do the business. There is something wrong when a store is always advertising clothing bargains and blowing much. The man you have confidence in is the quiet, dignified man—so is the store.

It may help you to know that we select our cloths ourselves—that every garment is then made to our special order by our regular makers, whom we have well tested and proved to be experts in this line. But come and see for yourself—remembering all the time that WOOL IS WOOL here. You can get a good SPRING SUIT or OVERCOAT here for $10, $12, $15, $18 to $22, and every garment is honestly worth 25 per cent. more than the money we ask for.

BUY A HOUSE THAT NEVER DISAPPOINTS.

KU KLUX KLAN

START OLD OUTRAGE

"Undesirable" Family Carried to Woods and Beaten by Night Riders.

ROANOKE, Va., April 3.—The Ku Klux Klan, after a sleep of forty years, is again abroad in the mountains of Virginia. Three white women and a man were the first victims of the ghostly night riders in Franklin county, near Rocky Mount. The three women, all members of one family, and one man of the household, were taken from their beds at night, by a company of horsemen, carried to the woods, stripped, bound and lashed until they fainted.

Written warnings had been nailed upon the door of the home of the victims, a family named Edney, consisting of husband, his wife and mother and wife's sister. The notice stated that their presence in the community was undesirable and they had better seek a new home or be visited with punishment for failure to do so.

Woman's Attempt to Cure Toothache Near Stove Almost Fatal.

PHILADELPHIA, April 3.—To smudge the toothache, Miss Mary Thompson put her face to the parlor stove last evening and almost burned herself to death. It was not that she meant to apply a poultice in the eye remedy. The burning was accidental.

Miss Thompson is 38 years old and was at 204 North Twenty-second street. She had been suffering with the toothache all day, and the heat of the parlor stove seemed to be the only thing that helped her. A particularly hard twinge caused her to put her face so close to the stove that the heat exploded a celluloid comb in her hair.

The fire burned down to her hair, upon her head and her hair was burned off.

CROWDS SAW ROXBURY MAN SHOOT HIS SWEETHEART

A Panic on Boston Streets—Murderer Also Attempted Suicide

BOSTON, Mass., April 3.—The second double shooting that has occurred in this city within 24 hours took place in the waiting-room of the street car transfer station at Roxbury Crossing, just before dark tonight, when Walter Stock, 28 years old, of 40 Kent street, Roxbury, shot and fatally wounded Agnes Bates, 20 years old, of 11 Oregon street, the same district.

Stock fired two shots at the woman, to whom he was engaged to marry, and then turning the revolver on himself, sent a third bullet through his mouth.

Both were alive when the ambulance reached them, but the Bates woman died later at the hospital, while Stock's condition at 8 o'clock tonight was reported as critical.

Like the affair which occurred in the south end early today, in which two colored people were involved, the shooting tonight was the outcome of a lover's quarrel.

Upon reaching the hospital and finding that he might live for some hours, the police placed Stock under arrest on the charge of murder. The shooting was witnessed by a large number of people who were on their way home from work, and caused almost a panic.

GRIMINAL ESCAPED IN AN AUTOMOBILE

TOLEDO, Ohio, April 3.—A special to the "Times" from Battle Creek, Michigan, says that A. K. Detweiler, of this city, indicted for robbery at San Francisco was located in a private house at Battle Creek this afternoon but escaped arrest by leaving the house by a rear door and being rushed away in an automobile, five minutes before detectives called at the house to effect his arrest. It is thought Detweiler's destination was Bellevue, 12 miles north of Battle Creek, where he could board a Grand Trunk train for Canada.

MAN KILLED BY TRAIN WAS WELL SUPPLIED WITH CASH

PAWBUCKET, R. I., April 3.—Nearly $2,000 in money, as well as two watches and some jewelry was found on the body of Thornton Olson of Arnot, Pa., who was killed by a train on the New York, New Haven and Hartford R. R. just above the station here tonight. Olson came here to visit his sister, Mrs. Andrew T. Olson, who lives in the house, but instead started up the railroad track, where, in avoiding a southbound train, he stepped in front of another going in the opposite direction and was instantly killed. Upon examination of the body, fifteen hundred dollars in bills were found sewed in the man's clothes, a wallet containing twenty $20 gold pieces in the pockets were two watches and there was also several dollars in silver in his trousers. The body, which was badly mangled was sent to Arnot for burial.

ATTEMPT TO WRECK A PASSENGER EXPRESS

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., April 3.—An attempt was made today to wreck a Pennsylvania R. R. express train near Tacony, a suburb. A track-walker (discovered a break in a rail of the westbound track near a bridge over Longshore street.

A knot of the rail had been sawn out. The electric signal connection was maintained by means of the fishplate under the rail in the same manner as was done in the wreck near Pittsburgh. A New York express train was almost due at Tacony when the track-walker flagged the train. Traffic was delayed two hours while a wrecking crew put in a new rail.

EMERSON, Man., April 3.—With his foot caught in a frog and unable to extricate himself, workman Fyvie, who ran on the mixed train between this town and Winnipeg, was run down this morning and killed in the C. P. R. yards. He was a resident of Winnipeg.
