

FAST YIELD OF CEREALS

Big Crops Tell of the American Farmer's Prosperity.

Figures Show That This Season will Close Crowd Last Year's Unparalleled Record.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.—Over 500,000 bushels of wheat, nearly 800,000 bushels of oats and fully 2,000,000 bushels of corn will be the result of this season's harvesting of these cereal products in the United States. In this respect last year's unparalleled record is to be closely crowded. The agricultural department is now receiving reports from its agents from all over the country and will be able to give the exact figures next December. The above figures have been obtained here from a collection of estimates made by experts in various parts of the country.

The wheat crop is naturally the centre of most interest at this time. The highest estimate is 550,000 bushels, made by the Cincinnati Price Current on the 13th of this month. The National Stockman also made a similar estimate on July 24. Bradstreet's estimate in July was 540,000 bushels. The lowest estimate yet made is that of C. Wood Davis, in the Kansas City Journal last July, when he said the total crop would net 475,000 bushels.

FIGURES ON YIELD OF WHEAT.
Basing the figures on the government report for September, the Daily Trade Bulletin says the crop will foot up to 480,000 bushels. These are the most moderate of all the guesses so far made.

The estimates made in September, this month, are, of course, the most likely to be correct. Most of these are based, in one way or another, on the government report for this month. The figures follow:

	Bushels.
Cincinnati Price Current	550,000,000
Shaw's Forecast	510,000,000
Regina Flour Mill	521,000,000
New York Produce Exchange	517,356,000
Daily Trade Bulletin	480,000,000
Baltimore Produce Exchange	517,356,000
Duluth Record	510,000,000
Average estimate	515,155,871

The crop of wheat last year as shown by the official statistics in possession of the chief statistician of the agricultural department was 547,000 bushels. It is, therefore, quite plain that this year's fruitage in wheat is to be about as great as that of last season, which was heralded the world over as most remarkable.

ESTIMATE OF THE OAT CROP.
There are three estimates at hand on the total oat crop for the present year. These are:

	Bushels.
Cincinnati Price Current	775,000,000
New York Produce Exchange	777,280,000
Daily Trade Bulletin	720,000,000

Last year's figures on oats were 796,000,000 bushels. The first two estimates made above are based on the government report for this month, and the average between the two is 776,140,000. It would not be a surprise if the total yield will be something above these estimates and the figures of last year thus eclipsed.

THE CORN CROP.
Coming to corn, an immense yield for the year is forecasted. All the forecasts are close to the 2,000,000,000 point, so that it can be said that the total corn crop will certainly be as much as that. Last year's figures were slightly over that mark, being 2,078,000,000 bushels. The various estimates on corn follow, all being up to date:

	Bushels.
Daily Trade Bulletin	1,998,000,000
New York Produce Exchange	2,015,800,000
Shaw's Forecast	2,100,000,000
Cincinnati Price Current	2,050,000,000
Baltimore Produce Exchange	2,049,376,000

The average of these figures is so close to 2,000,000,000 bushels that exact figures need not be given.

There is a great demand for all cereals now, and this is to continue or to increase from present indications. Wars and turmoils in Asia and Africa and the necessity of European nations keeping large armies ready will have an influence to hold up prices, irrespective of natural causes and market vicissitudes, such as short yields in other countries.

The brunt of the yield in cereal products, of course, comes from the west, though New England always makes a fine showing. The people of the middle western states probably are most affected by short crops in off seasons, just as they are benefited by such crops as this year's and last. Therefore the assertion that the farmers of the mid-western states are now in better financial condition than ever before is borne out.

WEDDED AT LINCOLN.

(Frederick Gleaner.)

A joyous nuptial event was consummated at Lincoln Thursday afternoon when Annie Eugene, daughter of Henry Mitchell, was united in matrimony to Murray Vernon Glazier, eldest son of Parker Glazier, M. P. P. The marriage rite was celebrated at the Baptist church at one o'clock, Rev. Jos. McLeod, D. D., of Fredericton, officiating. The church was tastefully decorated and was filled with the guests and friends who assembled to witness the interesting event.

The bride was charmingly attired in pure white silk trimmed with satin ribbon and chiffon, and she wore a handsome veil and wreath of orange blossoms and carried a beautiful bouquet. She was attended by her sisters, Miss Blanche and Pearl Mitchell, who were handsomely gowned in white organdie muslin trimmed with lace and insertion. The groom was supported by his friend, John C. Allen.

At the conclusion of the service at the church the bridal party and about forty guests were driven to the home of the bride's parents, where an elaborate and recherche dinner was served, and at the conclusion of which the bridal pair were driven to Glazier station and boarded the C. P. R. express for a tour to include St. Stephen, Calais, Eastport, Grand Manan and St. John. Upon their return they will reside at Lincoln.

The bride is a charming and popular lady and the young couple have hosts of warm friends, whose esteem and best wishes were evidenced by a large number of costly and beautiful gifts. The groom's present to the bride was a substantial cheque and to the bridesmaids he gave rings. The groomsmen presented the bride with silver spoons and the gift from the groom's parents was a cheque.

DOG BISCUIT.

What the Government Offered to Our Soldiers.

An Officer Tells the Truth About Devil's Emergency Rations.

OTTAWA, Sept. 28.—Lt. Morrison of D. Battery, in another of his chatty letters to the Ottawa Citizen, thus talks about emergency rations:

"I see you have been having lots of fun over the 'Emergency Ration' issued to us. When we unpacked the boxes containing ours, one-third of the tins were empty and the stuff which looks like fine oatmeal sifted through the others. The tins were so cheaply made that the lids would not keep on, if they were carried in a haversack. We thought it was some stuff that had been presented as a cheap advertising scheme to the troops. Our medical officer tried some of it, as did also Major Hurdman, but finding it of no apparent use, it was all left at the base. The joke of the thing is that the labels state that it is to be mixed with beef tea and a lot of other things when used. If a soldier in extremities had hot beef tea, soup and such things available, he would not be in need of emergency rations at all. A good emergency ration that night at Balmoral and on several other occasions would have prevented much suffering with us and subsequent illness."

A BIG DEMONSTRATION.
Halifax Preparing to Give Our Returning Soldiers a Royal Reception.

Sir Charles Tupper, willing to do all he can to assist—Suggested that the Fleet Meet the Transport Outside the Harbor.

HALIFAX, Sept. 28.—Already Halifax is preparing to welcome home the Canadian soldiers from South Africa. Sir Charles Tupper, Governor Jones, Premier Murray and Mayor Hamilton all signify their intention of helping to make the reception in this city a big event.

Sir Charles Tupper is in Amherst, and in reply to a telegram asking what his suggestion would be for a fitting reception to the Canadian soldiers returning from South Africa, the following was received:

"Everything should be done to show the gratitude of Canada for the undying glory conferred upon it by our brave volunteers."

Halifax was said, as he thought the full returning force would muster, that the welcome should be of national significance. It would be well to invite the mayors of the leading cities of Canada to be present. His honor said that he would confer with Premier Murray and Mayor Hamilton and do all in his power to make the affair a success. One suggestion made by the governor was that Admiral Bedford be asked to co-operate with the civic, military and militia representatives in making the demonstration one to be remembered. He thought that it would be possible to have the fleet leave the harbor, meet the transport and accompany her up from Sambro, saluting as they came. The forts could also be manned and salutes fired. The participation of the navy in the reception was possible in no other city in Canada. The people of the province were more likely to attend such a celebration than if it were purely military or civic, and he felt that Admiral Bedford would be only too happy to lend his assistance. Gov. Jones was emphatic in saying that nothing could be too good for the returning troops, and he was pronounced in his utterances that the welcome should be something unequalled in the history of Canada.

Hon. George H. Murray said he favored giving the boys a most enthusiastic and cordial reception, as they were deserving of all the honor that could be bestowed upon them.

Mayor Hamilton said that he and the members of the city council would extend to the returning soldiers a hearty welcome. He was not in a position to say just what form the reception should take. He would call a meeting of the council and have a committee appointed who would arrange a programme. The idea of having the transport met outside of the harbor and conveyed to the disembarkation pier was a good one. If a feature of that kind was agreed upon as a part of the general programme it would necessitate the admiral keeping up steam on the war vessels for some time, as the date of the arrival of the transport was not definite.

Mr. Pugsley was Not Present and Col. Domville Spoke for Him—Mr. Sproul Well Received.

HAMPTON, Kings Co., Sept. 28.—Declaration day in this county did not bring together as large a crowd as frequently assembled at the county town on the occasion of declaring the results in a contested general election. Majority in favor of Pugsley, 329.
Whereupon the sheriff declared Hon. William Pugsley duly elected, and adjourned his court sine die.
R. LeB. Twissie, Q. C., was then appointed chairman, who called Hon. William Pugsley, as the successful candidate, to address the electors. For a moment there was no response, then Colonel Domville arose and stated that he appeared for Mr. Pugsley. Last night he received a telegram from Mr. Pugsley, who is at Ottawa, prosecuting the claims of the government in the arbitration of the Eastern Railway matter, asking him to express his thanks to the electors, which the colonel proceeded to do.

He said the election was one of the most orderly and well conducted contests he had ever had anything to do with. The canvass had been carried on without vituperation or hard feeling, but he felt called on to express his opinion of what he called the cowardice of the conservative party, especially of the leaders in St. John, who had left Mr. Sproul to fight his own battle unaided, and even turning out to assist him at the non-resident polling place at Rothsay, where they might have done him great service. As an illustration of this he need only say that the only person Mr. Sproul challenged was one of his friends and who voted for him. If Mr. Sproul had been successful these people would have shouted themselves hoarse in his praise and claimed his success as a party victory. Sproul was one of the best speakers in the maritime provinces and he had won many friends in his own battle unaided, and for one, he should be glad to see him elected, provided he did not cross his (Col. D.'s) shadow. He said that Mr. Sproul had acted in the most handsome manner at Rothsay on polling day, and many who voted against him would have been glad to vote for him on a future occasion. He again in the name of Mr. Pugsley thanked the electors for their votes.

Mr. Sproul, on being called on, was received with cheers. He said it was not easy for a defeated candidate to make a speech, but he could and did so heartily thank all who had so loyally stood by him in what all knew from the first was a hopeless contest. The circumstances, however, called for a vigorous protest, and that had been given as shown by the more than fourteen hundred unpurchasable votes which had been cast for him. Instead of feeling dismayed or overwhelmed by the return as read by the sheriff, he gloried in it, and he warned the government and its supporters that he intended to carry on this fight until the cause of the people—the cause of pure government and economy in the public management—was a triumph. He thought the powers that make for righteousness, the moral conscience of the people, were all on one side—the side he had chosen, and the powers that he must prepare to meet the results, by putting their house in order, for he declared "Success is with us."

When he came into the field he found arrayed against him the whole powers of the two government machines. Resolutely he faced them and determinedly set before them the rottenness and waste to which the public interests were subjected at their hands, and no charge he made but was made face to face with the man he opposed. Personally he had no quarrel with Mr. Pugsley, but politically he was against him and his measures. When he first came out it was said that his candidature was a bluff, and that it would go no further than nomination day, but as the brief days rolled by they found it necessary to bring out all their artillery and their trained forces, scattering men all over the parishes, with money, and liquor, and promises.

The personation at Rothsay was of the most glaring and shameless character. In one case a man filling a position of public trust and accounted among the leaders of his party sunk himself so low as to attempt to personate the Rev. Allan Daniel, the rector of the parish. Another man was turned out no less than seven times as he presented himself again and again to vote the names of as many electors. One hundred and fifty persons were challenged and refused to take the
