Serial, twee doth lie for those Or defeat, or victory!

Is mensity above thy head, formity beneath thy tread, behind these all the troubled deep. Before these clouds and darkness sleep: On the space wherein they must, waits these victory or defeat.

All the shapes of all that sen, Spirit, they have followed thee! On the wave which thou hast past, Lo. they muster dark and fast; Wrathful faces bend on thee—High the price of victory!

Through the folds of darkness gleam Faces that m beauty beam, Shadowy faces, passing fair—Of these phantom shapes beware! In these looks so mild and sweet. Watching for thee, waits defeat! Various plant of the waters have no fear—Thou hast crossed their bosom fight: Form show, writin, below, Shall the dreafful conflict grow!

Nor for clouds before, all'ight—They shall kindle into light!

For the waters have no fear—Thou hast the darkness, therk and deep. Mellons wuit to wake from sleep!

All have earined, shall earn like thee, Of defaat, or victory!

Courings, mortil! Vanish shall Waters, shore, and darkness all, Power, they garment and conceal. They mink vanish! But for thee, There temains Electrify!

These who have, not shose who bring! Those who have, not shored strid—Trophies of victorious life!
