What will probably prove to

What will probably prove to be the last sleigh-drive of the season was given by Mrs. James Morrow on Saturday last, and was as successful a party as could well be imagined.

Some twenty sleighs met in Morris street about three e'elock, and drove to Herring Cove, where sive e'elock tee had been provided. The road, contrary to expectation, was very good indeed, and the party returned to town about half-past seven o'clock. Among the guests were Sir John and Miss Ross, Mr. White, Colonel Rolph, Captain and Mrs. Tarrey, Major and Mrs. Reader, Major and Mss. Bor, Judge Henry, the Misses Kenny, Miss Slayter, Miss Daly, Major Brady, Mr. Eathowen, Mr. and Mrs. Blackaday, Mr. and Mrs. M. K. Morrow, Miss Ethel Stairs, etc.

Invitations were out for dinners every night this week, with the exception perhaps of Friday night, the ration d'etre of all this Lenten festivity being the departure of the Leicestershire regiment, which will probably spend Easter on board the troop-ship. Besides the dinners there have been several small teas for the laddes so soon to leave us. On Monday there was to have been a sleigh-drive, but the wet weather quite precluded all thought of it.

On Friday last M*s. Brookfield gave a small dance or Mr. Frank Hope, who was here in one of the panks some years ago. The party was a very successful one, and much enjoyed by the very young and pretty girls who were its belies.

General Ryan, R. A., who leaves for England in General Ryan, R. A., who leaves for England in be coming spring, is to be succeeded, I hear, by an unmarried man. Colonel Leach, who will succeed colonel Hill, has only recently been married, and frs. Leach is both young and handsome.

Lord and Lady Clanwilliam whose parties at Admirally House some years ago, were always so pleasant, have been giving a couple of very large balls at Portsmouth, where they are now stationed. Lady Clanwilliam who is a connection of Mrs. Robin Unische and Mrs. W. Hill, were at one of these balls an exquisite tollette of platinum gray satin, trimmed with white and gold.

I hear that Staff-paymaster Francis G. Dent, R. N., has received an appointment as secretary to Admiral Stevenson, on board the flag-ship Royal Arthur. Both Mr. and Mrs. Dent, (who was a Miss Borrodaile) have many friends here who will be glad to hear of the good appointment which has been obtained by the former. I hear that Mr. Dent is not unlikely to pay a visit to Halifax during the summer.

is not unlikely to pay a visit to Halifax during the summer.

The marriage of Miss Ethel Muir, (daughter of Brigade-Surgeon H. S. Muir, formerly so well known in Halifax,) with Captain Rundle B. A., took place last month at the Garrison Church, Lucknow. Miss Muir was exquisitely dressed in White Irish poplin, made with a long train from the shoulders, and with an Empire bodice and white velvet eleeves and belt. In her hair she had diamonds and orange blossoms. Her four bridesmaids were dressed in white and green; charmingly cool the wedding party must have looked in so hot a climate. Miss Muir who visited her relatives in Halifax some years ago, made I hear, a very pretty bride. In appearance she somewhat resembles her mother, who was a Miss Wier, of this city.

On leaving the church the bride and groom passed between two lines of Sergeants of the Royal Horse Artillery, and under the "Arch of steel" formed by their drawn swords. For their boneymon Captain and Mrs. Rundle were lent a rajab's palace, with the use of his horses, carriages, and servants.

Mr. White A. D. C. and Mayor Ferguson, are going very shortly on leave to Florida, where they expect to find some sport. I believe it is pretty well-certain that Sir John and Miss Ross will leave for England in May. They will be very much repretted and no matter how pleasant the new people at Bellevue may prove, it must take some time before they make themselves so popular as are the present occupants of that hospitable house.

Among the passengers on the Vancouver last Sat-urday were Mr. Edward Stairs and Mr. Edward Macdonald, the health of the former taking them to Wiesbaden, not East Baden, as one scribe had it.

witations were also issued for Thursday evening, when a second and rather smaller party was on the cards at the same popular house; the guests of hone of at which, were to be Colonel and Mrs. Hill.

Invitations had also been issued for a large dimerate Government house on Wednerday evening, a fare well to a lady who has been very well known, very energetic, and very popular, during her sojourn here. Mayor and Mrs. Reader have been esteemed hospitable to a large circle of Halifax people, and are now reaping a harvest of goodbyc entertains ments.

Entertainments on a Saint's day are always proper, no matter what they may be on a Friday in Lent. The Leicestershire regiment did wisely then in asking the world to tea at Wellington Barracks yesterday afternoon, the last function there will be there until the new regime begins. An account of this party must wait till next week, as Friday entertairment are too late for Procourse.

The dinner which clebrates St. Patrick's day has been postponed by the charitable Irish society until Monday the twentieth, when it is to take place at the Halifax hote. Other dinner during the coming week are those to be given to the Leicestershire regiment by the officers of the R. A. and R. E., and some of the members of the Halifax club. The first of these two takes place on the twenty-third. It is not quite certain when the Leicestershire are to sall, but probably not till the end of the month.

People here are taking much interest in this good and kindly idea, which has as its object the greatly increased happiness of many people, who are deprived of that priceless thing—eyesight. Mr. Fraser is to be congratulated on his energy, for a great quantity of work must be done to make this series of bazaars a success.

Apropos of bazaars, that of the Masonic body is not to be held until Angust, and the men and ladies interested in it are taking every possible means to make it a success. The designs for the dresses to be worn in the various stalls are coming from England, and the ladies representing Virgin Lodge, have decided on white and silver as their colors. One of the attractions promised is a game of "living whist" like the more familiar "living chess." For young married women and the collision of the different some idea of the scale on which this collowal bazzar is to be done. The ladies of Et. John and Et. Andrew's lodges are to wear gold and cream color.

affording great pleasure to all present, among whom were Mrs. Blies and Miss Morre, of Amherst, who accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Harris.

The death of Mrs. Howard occurred on Thursday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. James Mofist, Church street, where she has made her home for several years, which have been more or less years of great suffering, borne with very great patience. Much sympathy is felt for the family, who are so widely scattered in their time of grief. Two daughters live in British Columbia, and the eldest son has made his home in California for the past five years on account of poor health. Mr. J. K. Howard of Amherst, Mrs. Moffat and Kins Howard were present to comfort her in her last lliness, and accompanied her remains to St. John, where they were taken to be placed by the side of her husband. Mr. Howard returned home on Saturday. Mrs. Moffat made a short stay with her sister in the city and arrived home on Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Dickey, who has been in Ottawa on a lengthy visit, arrived home on Saturday, to the great delight of her family and friends in general. I am sorry to learn that she is not enjoying the best health alter her journey.

Miss May Handford has gone to pay a visit to Miss Pauline Beil, of Sackville.

Miss Addie Betts, of Wentworth, who has been visiting Mrs. Heusits, returned he me on Monday.

Dr. and Mrs. Eaton, of Parriboro, spent Sunday in town, with Mrs. Eaton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Rogers; they returned home on Monday evening. Miss Lowerison, and Mrs. Torne, St. John, have returned from a very pleasant visit to their sister, Mrs. Fawcett, in Sackville.

Mrs. J. A. Mt. Queen, and Miss Chapman, of Dorchester, are spending a few weeks in Amberst.

On Wednesday evening, a very pleasant party was enjoyed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Coates, the Highlands, in honor of their son Sanford. The games were very pleasantly taken part in by the merry guest, and a very nice evening was spent by those who were fortunately present.

Mrs. D. W. Douglas, has been the hostess of the week, giving a large and cheery afternoon tea on Tuesday that was a very smartevent. The weather was rather out of keeping for very fine toilets, but the ladies managed to look well, and above all, to fully enjoy all things offered by the gracious hosiess. Among those who added freshness by new costumes were, Mrs. Sterne, in a very handsome suit of dark, apple green, that was very stylish; and Mrs. Allen, in a charming suit of light grey, with bat to match; the other guests were, Mrs. Ketchum, Mr. Purdy, Mrs. Blies, Mrs. W. D. Main, Mrr. Biden, Mrs. Etter, Mrs. Hanlord, Mrs. Lithgow, Mrs. Harris, Mrs. George Hilcoat, Mrs. Groue, Mrs. G. Smith. Mrs. Lanny, Miss Purdy, and Miss Bennett assisted the hostess, who wore a very pretty gown of black satin and brocade. This evening she will serve tea to a large number of young guests, the friends of her little nice, Miss Analo Jodrey.

Mrs. C. W. Main, left on Thursday evening, en route for Boston and New York, in search of spring novelties. She was accompanied by Mr. Jeffeev.

enjoyed. The proceeds go into the fund for a memorial monument.

Lectures seem to be a sort of epidemic here this week as there was another on Tuesday by A. J. Cox, of Halifax, on Astronomy. This last lecture left nothing to be desired, except perhaps the absence of the talented lecturer, according to whom there is no trouble at all in taking a little trip to Mars and bob-nobbing with the possible inhabitants. It took Mr. Cox precisely three hours and 10 minutes to exhaust his knowledge of this interesting subject, although I fully believe that like Tennyson's "Brook" he would have endeavored to "go on forever" (or at least all night), but that as midnight drew near there was a general exodus and he deemed free mear there was a general exodus and he deemed
