I. C. R. EMPLOYEES WANT MORE MONEY
Moncton, June 7.—In the County Court at Dorchester today the only criminal case, that of the King vs. J. E. Trites of Moncton, charged with assaulting Constable McArthur of Sheliac, was disposed of, the charge of resisting was withdrawn but the accused was convicted of common assault. Judge McLatchey imposed a fine of $25 or sixty days in jail. The fine was paid.

Hampton, N. B., June 8.—For about a month past two women whose names are said to be Adamson and Chappell, have been engaged in professedly religious work among the people of Smithtown and have awakened anxieties in the minds of some parents as to the outcome of their teachings. At first they secured the use of a schoolhouse for their meetings, but of late they have gone from house to house, and are willing to open their premises for the dissemination of the new religion. They claim to be followers of Edward Coe, W. G. McClun and others of the ilk, and are known as the Go Preachers, No Church, No Denomination, No Sect, Pilgrims, Martyrs, and other special designations. They have no creed, no doctrines, no ordinances, but baptism, and that is a mere formula. They read and expound the Scriptures according to their own notions, and have a knack of winning the attention of the young. They do not take collections nor ask for subscriptions, but accept the hospitality and free-will offerings of persons interested. Pamphlets denouncing those who claim allegiance to this cult, have come from England and Ireland to residents at Smithtown, in which they are charged with all sorts of crimes against religion and morality, and especially as being agents for the white slave traffic. The fears and anxieties of parents at Smithtown are being aroused, but so far there seems to be little or nothing on the part of these non-conformists to excite the attention of legal authority to suppress or control them, although there is some talk of having them arrested under the vagrancy act, if some one can summon up courage to take this course.

Additional free escapes are to be placed on the ladies' college and academy during the summer months. Mr. Lamblin, of Liverpool, is visiting the shores in the vicinity, purchasing lobsters for the English market. A. H. McCready, editor of the Sackville Post, has taken possession this week of his handsome new residence, on Weldon street. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ryan and daughter have returned from an extended tour of the west. The home of Mr. and Mrs. Coater was the scene of a pretty wedding on Tuesday, when their daughter, Nellie, was united in marriage to Harry Millican, of the firm of Baird & Peters Campbellton. Rev. Mr. John, of Londonderry, performed the ceremony. The honeymoon was spent in the Annapolis Valley. Miss Leona Corney, daughter of James Corney, Amherst, is to be married on Wednesday to Stewart Oulton, of Jolicoeur. Rev. D. Chapman, D. D., performed the ceremony, in the presence of the University Junior Class, is spending the summer in Welford assisting the Methodist minister. D. R. Frazer, proprietor of the Sackville monumental works, is spending a vacation in New England cities, visiting marble quarries and monumental shops, etc. Mrs. Frazer is accompanying him. Officers of the Odd Fellows' Lodge, organized in Port Egin last week under most auspicious circumstances, and with a charter membership of 21, are N. G. Fred Magee; V. G. E. B. Allen; recording secretary, F. M. Copp; financial secretary, J. J. Tower; treasurer, M. G. Simpson; J. J. Fitzpatrick; con. B. F. Wells; J. G. W. H. Copp; warder, Harry Field; O. G. Ernest Wood; R. S. N. G. Fred Turner; L. S. N. G. Wm. Grant; R. S. H. G. H. W. McLeod; L. S. V. G. C. V. G. R. S. S. Charles Silliker; L. S. Cyrus Munroe; chaplain, W. M. Sponer. Mr. R. Alder Trueman has resigned his position as recording steward of the Methodist church after acceptably filling it for over thirty years. At the last quarterly meeting of the church resolution of regret was passed by the board of trustees, that Mr. Trueman felt it necessary, on account of advanced age, to resign with the hope that he might remain a member of the board for some time to come. Edgar Dixon has been appointed successor to Mr. Trueman. The marriage takes place in Amherst today of Miss Moss, daughter of G. L. Moss, jeweller, to Robert K. Smith, son of Charles E. Smith, K. C. The groom is the secretary of the Liberal Conservative party for Cumberland, and a rising young barrister of Amherst. Rev. J. K. Curtis, recently appointed Sunday school secretary for the province, with Mrs. Curtis and family, arrived here from St. John, N. B., last week and have rented the residence on York street formerly occupied by A. W. Bennett. Sackville ladies who attended the recent W. M. S. Branch meeting at Moncton were Mrs. Rogers, Mrs. Hart, Mrs. Andrews, Mrs. H. F. P. Fickard, Mrs. H. Humphrey, Miss Stewart, Mrs. Bedford Harper, Miss Carter, Cahill, Mrs. A. E. Chapman and Mrs. P. S. Enman, Fort Egin.

Report in Ottawa That Huge Hull Industries Are Being Disposed Of To a Strong English Syndicate.
Ottawa, June 7.—That the great Eddy industries on the Hull side of the river at the Chaudiere are being sold, reports received at Ottawa, J. H. Rowley, of the Eddy Company, has just returned from a trip to the old country, and the report is that business was a business one, having for its object, the dispersal of the Eddy works to an English syndicate. It is understood that the deal has been practically completed. The industries were founded by the late Ezra Butler Eddy many years ago, and today represent millions. Most of the mills were destroyed in the great Ottawa fire, but were at once rebuilt.

Sackville, June 7.—Election of officers of the Mount Allison Alumni Society at the annual meeting last week, resulted as follows: Pres. Justice A. S. White, Sussex; 1st vice-pres. E. H. Hewson, Amherst; 2nd vice-pres. Miss Annie Colter, St. John; 3rd vice-pres. Ralph P. Bell, Halifax; secretary, Prof. Tweedie and Prof. Killam, Sackville; auditor, Principal Palmer, Sackville; members of the council, F. B. Black, Harold E. Bigelow, C. C. Ayard, R. Trites, Miss Winifred Thomas. The society will be represented on the board of regents by Judge McKeown and E. R. Machum. St. John, while Dr. Campbell will take the place of S. D. Scott, of Vancouver resigned. New alumnae society officers are: Pres. Mrs. B. C. Borden, Sackville; vice-presidents, Mrs. F. B. Black, Middle Sackville, Miss Lou Davison, Bridgeport; Mrs. Levi Curtis, St. John, N. B.; secretary, Mrs. Fred Ryan; council, Miss Emma Baker, Mrs. C. Richard, Mrs. Hinton, Mrs. H. Sprague, Mrs. L. Humphrey, Miss Ellen Read, Sackville; representatives on the board of regents, Mrs. Josiah Wood and Mrs. Fred Ryan. At a meeting of the Mount Allison Alumni Society, held on Thursday morning, an honorarium of $500 was voted to the retiring president of the university, Dr. Allison, in appreciation of his long and faithful services at the institution. Mrs. B. C. Borden was voted the sum of $200 as a small token of appreciation of 25 years membership of interest in the different departments of the ladies' college. A pleasing feature of the closing exercises was the presentation to Dr. and Mrs. Borden, the retiring principals of the ladies' college, of a handsome oak clock and silver entrance dish, the gifts being accompanied by an eulogistic address. The presentation was made at breakfast time Monday morning by Miss Pierce, of Halifax, and Miss Leitch, of Carleton Place, N. B., on behalf of the Mount Allison students of 1910 to 1911. Although taken by surprise, Dr. and Mrs. Borden expressed their thanks in appropriate replies. Additional free escapes are to be placed on the ladies' college and academy during the summer months. Mr. Lamblin, of Liverpool, is visiting the shores in the vicinity, purchasing lobsters for the English market. A. H.
