

LONG WANTED MURDERER HAS SURRENDERED

Dr. C. K. Robinson gave himself up to police at steps of Toronto City Hall.

Toronto, Sept. 7.—Sought by the police of the whole continent in America and of Europe, hunted from town to town in his own country, Dr. C. K. Robinson, the young practitioner of Tanworth, Ontario, charged with the murder of the young woman on July 8 last, gave himself up to Detective Wm. Grier on the steps of City Hall, just as the Labor Day parade was passing at ten o'clock this morning. Dr. Robinson was put under arrest, cautioned, and then driven to the parliament buildings, where Chief Inspector Joseph Rogers of the provincial police, remanded him until Wednesday. He was taken to the jail to await T. C. Robinson's application to a high court judge for bail.

He will be remanded from the jail to the assizes at Nanapan on September 22. It is likely the trial will go over to the spring assizes.

BANNER PROGRAMME AT LYRIC THEATRE

The Lyric management gave a matinee yesterday, it being Labor Day, as well as the usual evening programme. A large number patronized the popular house when in addition to a good programme of motion pictures the Nelson Sisters, with Will Adams, a musical ventriloquist well known to the ordinary standard in this line of entertainment, delighted the crowds. The Nelson Sisters, two dainty girls, gave a pleasing and clever act consisting of character costume changes, novelty songs and Scotch and Irish dances. Throughout their act they received a generous amount of applause, which was certainly well deserved. In this kind of stage work competition has, of late years, been keen, and it was to succeed in pleasing the amusement seeker more than ordinary ability is now required. The Nelson Sisters did very well indeed.

Will Adams' musical selections and numbers in comedy ventriloquism met with the approval of Lyric patrons as it was expected would be the case. The pictures shown added much to the pleasure-seekers' interest. In a programme entitled "The Double Knot," a production of the Majestic people, was particularly good, containing as it does many dramatic situations of exceptional interest. The management promise an especially good week's entertainment for local people and those who will be visiting the Exhibition. They have fortunately begun the week well.

WHEN ENEMY CAPTURE MERCHANT SHIPS

(From the London Standard.)
What boats are to be captured? Captains? Which may be sunk? These two questions, together with a third relating to the use to which prizes may be put are being freely asked at the present moment.

It is the duty of the navy to capture every ship of "enemy" nationality, and ships flying a neutral flag are also liable to capture if carrying contraband. Drastic as this rule may seem, it is necessary, as nothing can stop an enemy's ship flying a neutral flag by doing so it thereby seizes an opportunity of escape. For this reason the final decision concerning nationality is based on the certificate of registry carried in the captain's cabin.

It is interesting to note that a battleship engaged in the capture of merchant shipping may even fly false colors during the pursuit. She must, however, hoist her true colors before resorting to any act of force.

An innocent vessel that attempts forcible resistance becomes liable to capture, so also any vessel belonging to a neutral nation that sails under the convoy of an enemy's ships. The only enemy's ships immune from capture are coast fishing vessels and small local craft, mail steamers exempt by treaty, and hospital ships.

The destruction of a prize vessel is justified only through an inability to get her into port. This inability may be based upon the hazardousness of the ship, on the difficulty experienced by the captors in obtaining a prize crew, or upon the hindrance afforded to the captors in the execution of their duties. It is obvious, therefore, that where a naval engagement is imminent the liability of prizes to destruction is merely increased.

All neutral cargo must be saved before destruction is resorted to, and provision must be made for the safety of those on board. All papers must be sent by the captor to the port of adjudication.

All property captured under the laws of war becomes from the moment

IMPERIAL THEATRE'S SPLENDID SHOW

Rae Eleanor Ball Created Furor.

Arthur Huskins, Fine Pictures and Orchestra delighted thousands of people.

Rae Eleanor Ball, no doubt, the most attractive instrumentalist to grace a St. John platform in many years, returned to the Imperial Theatre yesterday, and once again music-loving St. John is discussing her art with enthusiasm. Keith's house contained holiday crowds that taxed its capacity both afternoon and evening, and besides Miss Ball's artistic playing, the programme was enhanced by the lyric tenor music of Arthur Huskins and some splendid orchestra selections.

Miss Ball, whose gown was well liked, much favorable comment, played three excellent numbers in her opening programme. In the introduction of the "Double Knot," a production of the Majestic people, she displayed that wonderful technique at which critical people marvel, to say nothing of her unusual interpretive powers and melody. The second number with which Miss Ball favored her hearers was the favorite Hungarian Gypsy dance, "Zigeunerweisen." An ovation followed these selections and forced the violinist to appear a third time, when she rendered "The Last Rose of Summer" with wonderful effect. Since her appearance at the opening of the Imperial Theatre one year ago, Miss Ball has been a student of Dr. Leopold Auer in Dresden, Germany, and those competent to judge, say she has improved wonderfully. Truly her visit is a musical event of importance and she will be greatly enjoyed during her stay.

Arthur Huskins is another favorite performer in the estimation of St. John people, and his voice has been heard yesterday, even before he commenced his song. His numbers are: "A Song at Evening," which he belted powerfully by John McCormack and for an encore, Mr. Huskins charmed his hearers with a pretty little song, "The Song of the Sea." The picture being shown at the Imperial today are just the kind of a programme Exhibition crowds would enjoy. There is a four-part Pathe spectacle entitled "The Treasure of Abbad Rahman," a budget of War Pictures and a "Slim Jim" comedy.

There will be a complete change of picture bill tomorrow, introducing Alice Joyce in a splendid two-part drama entitled "The Wolf's Clothing," also a Mary Pickford Biograph, re-issue.

of capture the property of the crown. The Admiralty are at liberty, therefore, as soon as the cargo has been placed where the prize courts may judge its future to use the ships as may be thought fit.

The transformation of a prize into a ship of war of the same nationality as the captor cannot take place in a neutral port. Such a transformation must be effected in the captor's ports or on the high seas. For this reason as the "Yaterland" was a merchantman owned by a belligerent, she could not be transformed into a fighting ship in New York Harbor.

Another German Alrship Crippled.
London, Sept. 7.—A dispatch to Reuters' Telegram Company from Antwerp says a German aeroplane, flying in the neighborhood of Lotingham, to the west of Malines, was fired on by the Belgians. The wings of the machine were injured and it was brought down to earth and the two occupants made prisoners.

Col. W. E. Gordon Among the Missing.
London, Sept. 7.—Col. W. E. Gordon of the Gordon Highlanders, who won the Victoria Cross in the South African war, is among the officers who are reported missing in France. Col. Gordon gained the Victoria Cross by going out under fire and attaching a rope to a gun which was in danger of being captured. With his men he was wounded in trying to drag it to safety.

A VETERAN WHO WAS WITH LORD ROBERTS

Laid Low with Rheumatism — But Cured by "Fruit-a-Lives".

Chatham, Ont., April 3rd, 1913.
"I am a veteran of the Crimean War and the Indian Mutiny, volunteering from the Royal Artillery into the Royal Engineers, and served under Lord Roberts during the Indian Mutiny, and am a pensioner of the British Government. I once had hand-to-hand fighting and continual exposure left me a great sufferer from Rheumatism, so much so that my legs swelled up, making it impossible for me to walk. "Fruit-a-Lives." They cured me of both the Rheumatism and Constipation. In my regular employment, I walk thirty miles a day and enjoy perfect health."

HILLSBORO PATRIOTIC MEETING A SUCCESS

Hillsboro, Sept. 6.—One of the greatest mass meetings ever held in this community took place in the United Baptist church last evening under the auspices of the Women's Institute. It was a "Patriotic Service" in purpose and spirit. Crowds came from miles around. A large choir under the leadership of Arthur Duffy, chorister of the First Hillsboro Baptist church, led the great enthusiasm in rendering of the National anthems. A special feature of the musical part of the programme was the solo rendering of "O Canada" by Rev. David Jenkins, rector of the Episcopal church here. The chorus by the school choir, however, was particularly good. The speaker was Rev. George Lawson, Moncton, making clear the factors that led up to the present European struggle and considering some of the possible results to follow.

Mr. Lawson made it clear that it was the national ambition of the Emperor of Germany and the nation itself that has opened this period of blood. He dealt with the perils and atrocity of the Germans in the present crisis. The speaker was well in touch with his subject and full of the spirit of the hour. C. J. Osmann, manager of the Albert Manufacturing Company, was the second speaker, and added to the well received address by Rev. W. E. Crowell, of Acadia, N. S., also addressed the meeting approving of the references to the unfaithfulness of Germany and his people as before referred to.

The chairman, Rev. S. Walter Schurman, then explained the work proposed in the gathering of the present Patriotic Fund, including the hospital ship and soldiers' relief funds. Rev. H. D. Worden, who has been lately volunteered, was on the platform and offered prayer. A preliminary offering was then received amounting to over $30. After the meeting closed the band rendered some selections in the open front of the church. The great crowd remained to the end.

Miss Laura Stevens gave a reading, "The Flag," which was much appreciated. The Death Warrant Delivered.

UNIQUE AGAIN HAS A FINE MYSTERY CHAPTER

Seventh episode of famous Motion Picture Story finds eager audiences waiting — Growing more popular.

The seventh episode of the Million Dollar Mystery was shown at the Unique yesterday to large crowds. There were in addition other pictures of the standard for which the management are always noted. The hit stage was tastefully decorated with foliage which is used to set off a large Union Jack in the centre, guarded by a lion over which are the words: "What we have we'll hold." It being Labor Day there was a matinee at 1.30.

The mystery series at the Unique continues to excite great interest, for patrons have not forgotten that, not only do the pictures themselves afford good entertainment for the photo-play lover, but there is that $10,000 prize to be won by somebody. Particulars of the conditions concerning the award of this generous prize have already been published. The seventh instalment of the series introduces one of the most sensational scenes yet presented. An automobile with its human occupants is seen in a tremendous speed, when it suddenly makes a headlong dash over a wharf and falls into the waters below. It portrays another instance in which the conspirators are foiled, and Florence is again victorious. This scene is in the climax of the episode and is entitled, "The doom of the auto bandits."

In addition to the principal feature, a two-part drama by the Majestic company, called "The Intruder," is presented, as well as a Keystone number entitled "Gasoline and Love." The pictures shown last night are a special feature of the programme. In presenting the above programme, the Unique management have certainly shown that they are alive to the requirements of the holiday folk, and are not backward in acting accordingly. The pictures shown last night and those to follow during the remainder of this week, when thousands of visitors are expected to be in the city in connection with the exhibition, are sure to attract large audiences to the neat little theatre in Charlotte street.
