Ald. Fisher accused the Mayor of having at the Saturday meeting "jumped around like a maniac," for which expres sion he was called to order. Ald. Fisher appealed from the decision of the chair, and the vote stood-in favor of appeal one, to sustain the chair three, not voting four. Great excitement pre vailed, and the Mayor left the chair, breaking up the meeting. He has called a public meeting for Wednesday evening. The city is divided, the working men and Repair and Refurnish his GALLERY salaried officers favor the Mayor's assessment bill, while it is opposed by the mer chants. The bill is virtually defeated, as it is now too late to put it before the Le-gislature. The old assessment law must be amended by bye law of Council.
