

THE Maritime Medical News

A MONTHLY JOURNAL OF MEDICINE AND SURGERY.

Vol. XV.

HALIFAX, NOVA SCOTIA, AUGUST, 1903.

No. 8.

PANOPEPTON

is a food that sustains the sick and gives strength to the weak and delicate. Panopepton is a rational and successful food for infants in the digestive disturbances that are so liable to occur during the summer. Panopepton meets all the requirements of a true food, is agreeable, readily assimilable and highly nourishing.

MADE BY

TOB FAIRCHILD BROS. & FOSTER

NEW YORK

