Paying money into court.

LXXIII. That upon paying money into court, the solicitor shall furnish the bank with a correct copy of so much of the order of court as shall relate to such payment, which copy shall contain the names of the parties to the suit, and the date of such order. And it is further ordered, that all sums of money to be paid out under any order of court, shall be so paid out upon a check to be drawn out and signed by the registrar, and counter-signed by the Master, but not otherwise.

Alimony.

LXXVIII. Whereas the order requiring proceedings for alimony to be by libel and plea is attended with inconvenience, and it is expedient to alter the same ;

It is therefore ordered, that suits for alimony shall henceforth be by bill for discovery and relief, or either ; and answer and other proceedings in the same manner as other suits in this court.

Provided, nevertheless, that such discovery shall be subject to the same objections as any other matters of discovery are by the rules and practice of the court.
