

An Act to enable the City Council of the City of London to sell and convey certain land in the City of London, called the Potters' Field.

WHEREAS a certain tract of Land situate in the City of London Preamble.
 called the Potters' Field and known as the North west quarter of that block of land in the City of London, bounded on the North by Great Market Street, on the South by Bond Street, on the West by Waterloo Street, and on the East by Colborne Street, heretofore granted by the Crown for the purpose of a public burial ground or Potters' Field in the City of London, has become innapropriate for the purpose for which the same was granted; And whereas the Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty of the City of London, are desirous of disposing of the said land and have petitioned to be authorised to dispose thereof, for the purpose of acquiring another tract of land more advantageously situated for the purpose of a Public Cemetery; Therefore Her Majesty, &c., enacts as follows:

I. The Mayor, Aldermen and Comonalty of the City of London, or their successors in office, shall have full power and authority and are hereby authorised to sell and dispose of that tract of land in the City of London called the Potters' Field, and particularly described in the Preamble of this Act, and to grant and convey the same or any part thereof, in fee simple, to such person or persons as may be desirous of purchasing the same, and upon such terms as the said Corporation shall deem expedient. City Council may sell the Potters' Field.

II. So much of the proceeds accruing from any such sale or sales of the said land as may be necessary, shall be applied by the said Corporation for the purpose of acquiring another tract of land near the limits of the City of London for the purpose of a public cemetery, and the residue of the proceeds shall be applied in and towards any other City improvements that the said Corporation shall think fit. Application of the proceeds of the sale.

III. This Act shall be deemed a public Act.

Public Act.