

Three Arrows Leads His People 179

effects of her twenty years of service, but she held her head proudly and was the same old Whirlwind that they had loved. They fell upon her, decorated her with colored streamers, put red and white feathers in her mane and tail, and led her proudly into the camp, following close after her master and his bride.