

NEW BOOKS.

NAN'S SCHOOLDAYS.

By Mrs. HENRY CLARKE, M.A., Author of "Hope's Legacy," etc. With Illustrations by D. TRAVERS-POPE. Cr. 8vo, cloth, 2s.

THE MEDLAND BOYS AND SCHOOLDAYS AT ST BENEDICT'S.

By A. L. HAYDON, Author of "The Book of the V.C.," etc. Crown 8vo, cloth, 1s. 6d.

New Volume of the "Adventure" Series.

STORIES OF SOUTH POLE ADVENTURE.

By FRANK MUNDELL. Well Illustrated. Cr. 8vo, cloth, 1s. 6d.

BIBLE STORIES RETOLD FOR YOUNG PEOPLE.

By ROBERT HYSLOP. Crown 8vo, cloth, 1s. 6d. net.

THINGS THAT ARE LOVELY.

Talks with the Children. By Rev. A. AVERELL RAMSEY. Crown 8vo, cloth, 1s. 6d. net.

THE "LITTLE NURSERY" SERIES.

Medium 48mo, fancy boards. Coloured Illustrations. Price 1s.

THE PEEP OF DAY.

A New Edition. With 12 Coloured Illustrations.

FIFTY-ONE ANIMAL STORIES.

With 12 Coloured Illustrations by GEORGE RANKIN.

SUNNY DAYS AND SHADY WAYS.

Stories and Verses by Various Writers. Profusely Illustrated. Illuminated boards. A Book of Short Stories and Excellent Pictures dealing entirely with Child Life in the Fields and in the Woods, and at the Seaside. Price 1s.

TOM TUFTON'S LOYALTY.

By ELEANORA H. STOOKE, Author of "Sir Richard's Grandson," "The Hermit's Cave," etc. A Capital Story of a Schoolboy's Devotion to the Interest of the French Master at his School, and how his Loyalty was justified. Price 1s.

A YOUNG LADY OF QUALITY.

A Story of the Methodist Revival. By EMMA LESLIE. With Illustrations. Price 9d.

SUNSHINE MAKERS IN A SUNNY LAND.

By MARY N. TUCK. Illustrated. Miss Tuck knows her India well, and numbers a very large number of Indian children among her friends. She has here brought together the Stories of their lives, twelve of them, and the recital is a very winsome and touching one. Price 9d.