Pristach Becker player

Peter Pristach of Ontario Racquet Club will join Cobblestone Court's Glenn Michibata on Canada's Becker Cup team.

The Becker Cup, a nine-nation tournament with finals in Le Touquet, France at the end of July is competed for by some of the world's best under 16 boys.

Pristach, Laird Dunlop of Ottawa and Benoit Lemieux of Quebec topped a 10 player field last week to earn spots on the team. They will join Michibata and Martin Wolstenholme of Ottawa who are already playing in Europe.

The team begins play in Berlin July 10.

Local in Yukon fight

Mississauga's Dave Belcher won't be able to blame the summer doldrums for any misfortune he may suffer at the Canadian junior boxing championships this weekend.

Belcher, Ontario champion and a member of the Mississauga Boxing Club, will be contesting the national junior flyweight title in the Yukon.

It's a team game

A team effort was needed against Gozitan Friday and Neerlandia didn't have it.

Gozitan pounded them 4-0 in their Metro Toronto Soccer Association match.

Both teams had an equal number of chances, but Neerlandia lacked the spirit to capitalize on them. They were scored on within the first 25 minutes of play.

The second goal came with five minutes remaining in the half.

Neerlandia's record now stands at two wins and three losses.

Brads Passion has won twice in six starts.

Brown shines in London

Dave Brown of Mississauga outlasted Mississauga's newest tennis pro in the finals of the Thames Valley Open last weekend in London, Ontario.

Brown defeated former Australian junior champion Harry Brittain 1-6, 5-7, 6-2, 6-7.

Brittain is the pro-manager at the Ontario Racquet Club.

Minus four equals four against

Still awaiting the transfer of four players to complete a full roster, Jim Rea's Mississauga United mosquitoes took another beating last week, this time from Rexdale.

The final score was 4-0 in favour of Rexdale. United held its own until three-quarter time but the manpower shortage began to tell in the late going.

MINOR BANTAM
The courageous efforts of United forward Fred Thompson, who played

Best for last

VIP saves the best for last.

First place VIP scored six runs in the last inning to defeat Labella Real Estate 6-5 in Mississauga six-pitch play last week. VIP also defeated Erin Mills Realty 4-3 on a last inning single by Jerry McLennan.

In other games, defending champion TD Bank beat Texaco 15-9 on two homers by Joe Andrusko. Dave Redgers and Mark Sherman hit three homers each to lead Jolly Miller to an 11-0 victory over Canada Vinegar. Bruce and Jim Crymble had three hits each as Royal Bank edged Texaco 9-8.

while sick with the flu, gave Mississauga United a tie and reinforced United's hold on first place in the Metro Interdistrict Soccer League.

The minor bantam club fought to a 1-1 stalemate with Don Mills last week.

Thompson scored the lone goal for United, despite the fact that his illness forced him to retire from the game with fifteen minutes remaining in the match.

Goaltender Don Ferguson was outstanding warding off several Don Mills attacks.

United now has a 3-0-1 record one point ahead of St. Andrews.

MINOR PEEWEE
Despite the fact that his team won, Mississauga United coach Bruno Puzzer would have liked to see them win by a more convincing margin.

The Metro Interdistrict

minor peewee team stole a 1-0 squeaker from Malton last Thursday, to bring their record to two wins and four losses. Gino Ferrin got the only goal, and Brad Walcott recorded the shutout.
