

<sup>67</sup> As the weather so far has been so wet & cool that one has not yet felt the call of the woods so keenly as is usual at this time.

I hope to go sometime in July. We have however enjoyed many water trips into the Corby Canons near by. The next time you come I trust that is not a vain hope, you must have some play & experience the joys

I hope I will meet him and have a great curiosity to see a man I have heard so much about. There is a perceptible change in the attitude of many people out here towards Mr. R. since his proximity to the union labourers.

I am glad to say the Melboms have gone to their ranch altho they come in often. I have not yet bid me to my mountain retreat
