Sent to h'Espérance

Dear Mr. Armstrong:

Your letter of the 7th inst. was awaiting my return from the West Saturday. I have read it with the greatest interest. The idea you have is a sound one, but to get organized effort behind it, and carry it through to a reality, is however not easy. As you can realize, it is impossible for me to attend to all these matters myself, but this I can do: I can place the suggestion in the hands of one or two men who are interested in attaining the same object which you have in mind, and who in my best judgment will be most likely to make a substantial effort to get results. This I am doing at once.

I am leaving to-night for Hastings which will occupy a week of my time.

I am,

Yours very truly,
