Ottawa April 28th, 1909

Sir,-

Referring to your letter of the 5th ultimo addressed to Mr. Willard and transferred from the Department of the Interior to this Department, I beg to inform you that the road allowances in Indian Reserve No. 69, in which the lands you mention are situated, are shown on the plan herewith enclosed. They are duly constituted public highways and are under the control of the Provincial Government of Saskatchewan.

You should apply to F. J. Robinson, Esq., Deputy Commissioner of Public Works, Regina, Saskatchewan for any action you desire in connection with the said road allowances.

Your obedient servant

Henri Brinon, Esq.,

Pussay,

Senie & Oise,

France.
