

- Lacewing Fly—(continued)
 emergence from cocoon of, 21 eyes of, 14
 flight of, 13, 14
 offensive characteristic of, 15, 21
 pupa or chrysalis of, 22 time of development, 22
- Lacewing Fly larva— and cannibalism, 18
 and moths' eggs, 18
 cocoon of, 21
 emergence from egg of, 17
 first meal of, 17, 18
 mandibles of, 20
- Long-tailed Ichneumon Fly, 125-6
- Lunar Hornet-moth, 114
 and struggle for existence, 119 buzzing sound of, 116
 chrysalis of, 122, 123
 developing diurnal habits, 118 egg-depositing of, 120
 emergence of, 113, 114
 evolution of its wasp-like characteristics, 118 extent of wasp mimicry of, 115-17 hornet-like characteristics of, 115 transparent wings of, 116, 117 wasp-like antennæ of, 116
- Lunar Hornet-moth larva— closing entrance hole to boring, 120, 121 commencing to feed, 120 curious instinct of, 122 protection against enemies, 121
- Magpie Moth, 150, 156
 and British Board of Agriculture, 150 caterpillars of, 151-5
 cocoons of, 155, 156
 eggs of, 151
 larvæ, conspicuous colour of, 152, 153
 pupa of, 155, 156, 160
- Mint and Hover-flies, 77
- Mite, Dor-beetle, 170-2
- Monkeys—
 habit of picking particles from their coats, 142
 not infested by fleas, 142
- Moth—
 Currant, 150
- Moth—(continued)
 Gooseberry, 150
 Lunar Hornet-, 111
 Magpie, 150
 Puss, 32
 scales from wings of, 116
- Moths—
 clear-wing, 117
 flight of, 13
- Ocyptus olens, 103
- Orange-tip Butterfly, 97, 98
 chrysalis of, 97, 98
- Painted Lady Butterflies— and strong wind, 139, 140 migration of, 128, 139, 140 multitude of, 128
 origin of migratory instinct, 140
- Painted Lady Butterfly, 127 almost a cosmopolitan species, 127 attachment to pitch of land of, 129
 chrysalis of, 133
 development of its wings, 135, 136
 eggs of, 130, 131
 emergence of caterpillar from egg of, 131 first outlook on the world of space, 137 instinct for suitably placing eggs, 130 larva, changing to chrysalis, 132 larva, moulting its skin, 132, 133 larva, rate of growth of, 131 notorious migrant, 90
 seeing it emerge from its chrysalis, 134, 135 unexpected appearance of, 127
- Papilio machaon, 25
- Path-Wasp, 163
- Peacock Butterfly, 91, 93
- Pompilidae, 163
- Pompilus exaltatus, 163
- Poulton, Prof., experiment with irritant fluid of Puss Moth larva, 41, 42
- Pulex, 141
- Purple Emperor Butterfly, 176, 184-6
 bait for, 179