The forty-fifth Session of the Medical Faculty of McGill University will be opened on Monday October, 1st 1877, with a general Introductory Lecture at 11 a.m. The regular lectures will commence on Tuesday the 2nd Oct., at the hours specified in the time-table, and will be continued during the six months following.

It affords the Faculty much pleasure to be able to announce that the beautiful and commodious new building erected by the Governors of the University for the use of the Medical Faculty, has been completed and is now occupied by the Faculty.

The class tickets for the various courses are accepted as qualifying candidates for examination before the Universities and Colleges of Great Britain and Ireland, the Medical Boards of the Army and Navy, and the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario.

To meet the circumstances of the General Practitioners in British North America, where there is no division of the profession into Physicians and Surgeons exclusively, the degree awarded upon
