We also have another beautiful illustration given to us in the parable where our Lord compares His Church to a field, where there is sown good, and whilst men were asleep, the enemy came and sowed therein cockle, or bad seed. This latter grew up amidst the good seed, so that it was in danger of choking it, the servants asked permission of the servants. He told them 'To have patience, that the servants. olic may perform these actions of virtue, still if he commits one grievous sin and dies in that condition, his previous good deeds will not save him. Even the civil law does not wait until the criminal has committed several crimes of theft or even of murder before inflicting punishment upon these transgressors. The first time they are found guilty of violations of the criminal code they are punished. Man strives to conform his laws in the regulation and good order of society, in conformity with the laws of God, and hence we are told that the justice of God must punish the shmer who is guilty of any violation of God's commands.

Toronto, Feb. 22, 1904.
On Wednesday, Jan. 20, the soul of John Robinson passed peacefully into the hands of its Maker. His lilness was of a short duration, and, despite the most assiduous care and kind nursing, his life could not be prolonged. He was born in Ireland, and came to this country while yet a boy. He was a man of good qualities—a good neighbor, always ready and willing to lend a helping hand. He leaves to mourn his loss one sister, Mrs. William Kelly, 250 Logan avenue, Toronto. That a copy be sent to the Catholic Record and Register.

MRS. McNULITY, ST. THOMAS.

The death occurred at 12:30 o'clock this morning of Mrs. Mary McNulty, at her residence, corner Talbot and Catharine streets, after a week's ilness from pneumonia. Mrs. McNulty, who was sixty-seven years of age, was born in New Brunswick, but had resided in St. Thomas for about thirty years. Her husband, Patrick McNulty, died about twenty-five years ago. Mrs. McNulty is survived by four daughters, Mrs. Cecile Brady, Mrs. Kate Stewart, Miss Mamile and Miss Winnie, all of this city. The funeral was held on Friday morning at 9 o'clock from the family residence, corner of Talbot and Catharine streets, to the Holy Angels' Church, where solemn High Requiem Mass was celebrated.

Mrs. McNulty's circle of friends in the city was very large, and everywhere expressions of sincere sorrow at her death are heard. Amongst the Catholic people, especially, this feeling is manifested. During her thirty years of residence in this city, no one of her co-religionists was more active in Church matters, and none more highly respected. Although most of the time actively engaged in business, she never lost an opportunity of relieving distress wherever found. The poor and afflicted have lost a true friend in the late Mrs. McNulty, and her many acts of benevolence and kindliness of heart, and her quiet, unostentatious life will long be remembered. Those of her family surviving have the sincere sympathy of hosts of friends in their berevement.—St. Thomas Times, Feb. 10.

May she rest in peace!

In the passing away of Mr. George Baye of Pleasant Point Farm, Orillia has lost one of its earliest settlers. He had lived to the good old age of eighty-nine years and for seventy seven years had resided on the beautiful shore of Lake Simeoe. His father was a French officer who could trace his descent back to royalty in old France, but love of side and the seventy of the country of the seventy of

Just as he fell he managed to catch his cost collar and with the strength and brayery born of those strenuous times managed to hold his head out of the water until at dawn they were cast upon the shore at Hawkstone, where to his great grief and dismay his father in a few moments breathed his last in his arms. The event cast a shade of melancholy over his whole life, and although bus a boy of fourteen his was the task of looking after his toother and the younger children; and most brayely did he accomplish of the kindest disposition, genile and thoughful and a most exemplary Catholic. No matter how stormy the weather was, his place was never empty in the family pew; and indeed he counted it as naught to walk through the pathless forest to Mass, if he heard of a station being given by a missionary priest. His good wife preceded him little more than a year are and since the he has failed very rapidly. He received all the rites of our Holy Church and died at peace with God and bis neighbors. Kind readers of the tatholic Record pray for the repose of his soul.

It is our sad duty to chronicle the death of Mr. Thomas O'Laughlin, which took place Monday morning Feb. 22nd. at his mother's residence, near Lucknow. Deceased was a very bright and intelligent young man, faithful in his religious duties and enjoyed in confidence and good. will of the community at large. A severe cold which the contracted settled on his lungs, and, deeplie the best medical treatment and sejorn in a dryer climate, he gradually became weaker, and finally succumbed at the age of wenty years. As this is the third death in the family within a year the circumstances of his death and yourhful age reader it more distressing. He was propared for death by his paster, Rev. The funeral, which was largely attended, proceeded from his residence to St. Angustine Church, where Mass of Requiem was sung by Rev. Father Hanlon who also preached a practical discourse. Calgary Herald, Feb. 22.

The announcement of the departure of the Rev John A. Fitzpatrick. O. M. L. from Calgary has been received with regret not only by the members of the congregation of St. Mary's church, but by many friends of other denominations in the city.

Father Fitzpatrick preached his farewell sermons yesterday, expressing his sincer tegret that he was obliged through ill health to seek another climate. Since his arrival in Calgary just a year ago, he had endeavored to promote the interests of the parish and had been loyally aided by the parishioners. He predicted a greatfuture for Calgary, and hoped the blessing of God would be always with its people.

the blessing of God would be always with its people.

The members of the C. M. B. A., presented Father Filzpatrick with the following address in the church after the evening service:

Reverend Sir: In behalf of the C. M. B. A. of this far west city we, on the eve of your departure, come to pay our respects, veneration and love to you as our Spiritual Adviser, as our faithful father and as a very dear brother of our chertshed association.

The year of your ministry amongst us has been, our most presperous in obtaining new members since the organization of the branch, and though you will not be with us personally guiding and directing the ship, still we hope that the good work done in your time amongst us will bear good fruit, and that the memory of your great zeal and interest in our affairs will float down the corridors of the coming years.

will float down the corridors of the coming years.

We have great pleasure in bearing testimony to the great good your stay in our young city has wrought, as your sermons, your lectures, your missions and retreats will be to us who have had the good luck to partake in them, guiding lights to steer our individual barks to the great haven for which we are all aiming and to meet you again there is the wish of this branch of the C. M. B. A.

That your health may improve, that your location in the Lord's vineyard may be pleasing to you, whether eastward or westward you rosm, and that your pious prayers before the altar may be directed to the throne of grace for Branch 128. Calgary, is the earnest wish of our association.
