FIVE-MINUTE SERMONS FOR EARLY MASSES

Preached in their Church of St. Paul the Apostle, Fifty-ninth Street and Ninth Avenue, New York.

TEWENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST "Put you on the armor of God, that you may be able to stand against the deceits of the devil."

Dear brethren, it may not have occurred to you that the late command of our Holy Father the Pope in reference to the devotions of the month of October, is really a call to put on our armor and to go to battle; yet such is the case.

We are summoned by our great captain upon earth to gird our loins, and to have the sword of truth in our hands, to fight the good fight against our enemy, "the most wicked one."

Our Holy Father the Pope is at once a victim and a prisoner. He has been robbed of his temporal possessions—possessions given his predecessors centuries ago. He simply asks them back. The enemies of the Holy See came with clash of arms, with war, with devastations, and seized upon the patrimony of Peter, the Prince of Apostles.

Nothing is so pitiable as a mind diseased. Most brain troubles begin in the stomach; then if the blood is filled with uric acid, caused by failure of kidney action, and the consequent destruction of the blood life—albumen—you have the fuel and the flame and a brain in full blaze as when one raves, or in slow combustion, as in milder forms of insanity.

It is vain for king or pope to raise their arm against Christ's Vicar, for he has God on his side. They may rob him and imprison him, but he still will hold spiritual sway. Though stripped of all this world's goods, he is yet the guardian of the keys of the eternal kingdom, and no man can wrest them from him.

It has been demonstrated before our day, that the Church has no need of earthly prestige to maintain its ascendancy over the hearts of men. We had no need of Garibaldi and his wretched crew to teach us that; we always believed it. But this last attempt to crush the head of the Church in hope of crushing the Church itself, has shown this to all the world who believed not.

Temporal power or not, the Pope is, and he is a king also. His realm is the hearts of his faithful children, who will ever bow the knee to him, whether he be a prince with wide estates, or have only for his principality the Vatican garden.

We have been patient, biding our time. Now is the time. Put on your armor, soldiers of Jesus Christ; put on your armor, Christian men and women, and under their banner of the Cross march on to victory; let your watchword be, "The gates of hell shall not prevail."

NATIONAL PILLS are a mild purgative, acting on the Stomach, Liver and Bowels, removing all obstructions. Bilelessness. When the Liver does not act promptly the bile accumulates to excess in the blood, causing yellow eyes, sallow skin, sick stomach, diarrhoea, etc., and the sufferer is termed Bilious. Burdock Blood Bitters regulates the Liver, Stomach, Bowels and Blood, curing Bilelessness.

It is the testimony of all men who have tried it that "Myrtle Navy" tobacco has the most delicious flavor of any tobacco in the market, and that it leaves none of the unpleasant effects in the mouth which most tobaccos do. The reason for this is the high and pure quality of the leaf, which is the finest known in Virginia, and the absence of all deleterious matter in the manufacture.

"HER CHANCE."

A PRACTICAL ILLUSTRATION FOR MOTHERS AND THEIR MARRIAGEABLE DAUGHTERS.

About thirty years ago two young girls were graduated from the same school in a quiet town in one of the Middle States. Each was clever, good-tempered and attractive, and the daughter of a farmer who could give to his children a comfortable home, but no fortune.

The mother of one of these girls (we will call her Mary) declared that her child should "have her chance." An outfit of silk, velvet and evening dresses, Paris hats and jewelry was provided by selling off part of the family acres; and the mother set out with her on a round of visits to the springs and other fashionable resorts. The girl was shown off to every eligible young man, precisely as a horse would be exhibited to a buyer, but in vain. The effort was renewed summer after summer, until the mortification and shame which the girl had felt at first were worn away, and she became at heart a hard, vulgar adventurer, whose sole object was to make a brilliant match; in other words to sell herself for a good price. Just as she was beginning to grow old and soured with disappointment, she succeeded in marrying a man of sixty with a large fortune. His habits were dissolute and his temper intolerable. Her two children, having grown up in an atmosphere of show and pretense, unwarmed by a spark of love, truth or religious faith, naturally were indifferent to their mother. The son became a spendthrift and drunkard; the daughter an almost imbecile fashionable woman. Mary has the stately house, the servants, the equipages for which she planned and struggled for so many years. But she has nothing more.

Her classmate, leaving school, entered at once into the work and life of her home. She was the friend and companion of father and mother, the teacher of her little sisters. "She shall be fitted to become a wife and mother," her mother said, "if God sends her that good happiness. But she shall not go out into the world husband hunting. The hare should not chase the hounds."

According to this homely philosophy she remained at home, among her own friends and neighbors, and married a young man who had no wealth but industry and honesty, whom she heartily loved. They live still in their native village. Their small income goes far there. They have comforts and luxuries; their children are healthy, intelligent, successful men and women and all devoted lovers of their mother.

Mary sometimes sees her classmate in town, in her old-fashioned country carriage, with rosy cheeks beneath her gray hair, and pities her because "she never had her chance."

Girls, remember your chance is something higher and deeper than the chance of being sold from an auction block to the highest bidder.—Youth's Companion.

The Increase of Insanity.

Boston supports 800 insane, says Mr. T. B. Sanborn, not 75 of whom will recover! This is frightful! Insanity has increased 40 per cent. in a decade and most of the cases are incurable. What of the individual cause may be, the fact remains that Uric Acid blood sets the brain on fire, destroys the tissues, and then comes some form of fatal lunacy.

Nothing is so pitiable as a mind diseased. Most brain troubles begin in the stomach; then if the blood is filled with uric acid, caused by failure of kidney action, and the consequent destruction of the blood life—albumen—you have the fuel and the flame and a brain in full blaze as when one raves, or in slow combustion, as in milder forms of insanity.

It is indeed a terrible thing to lose one's mind, but it is a more terrible thing to suffer such a condition when it can be so easily prevented.

In the Catholic schools of the Diocese of Cincinnati, there were last year 22,054 pupils; in Cleveland 23,950; and in Columbus 6,482—making in all 53,486 children attending Catholic schools in Ohio.

One Experience of Many.

Having experienced a great deal of "Trouble!" from indigestion, so much so that I came near losing my life!

My trouble always came after eating any food— However light And digestive. For two or three hours at a time I had to go through the most Excruciating pains. "And the only way I ever got!" "Relief!"

Was by throwing up all my stomach contained! No one can conceive the pains that I had to go through, until "At last!" I was taken! "So that for three weeks lay in bed and could eat nothing!!!" My sufferings were so that I called two doctors to give me something that would stop the pain.

Their efforts were no good to me. At last I heard a good deal "About your Hop Bitters!" And determined to try them. Got a bottle—in four hours I took the contents of One!! Next day I was out of bed, and have not seen a "Sick!" Hour, from the same cause, since. I have recommended it to hundreds of others. You have no such "Advocate as I am." GEO. KENDALL, Allston, Boston, Mass.

Downright Cruelty. To permit yourself and family to "Suffer!" With sickness when it can be prevented and cured so easily. With Hop Bitters!!!

Hot and dry skin! Scalding sensations! Swelling of the ankles! Vague feelings of unrest! Frothy or brick-dust fluids! Acid stomach! Aching loins! Cramps, growing nervousness! Strange sensations of the bowels! Unaccountable languid feelings! Short breath and pleuritic pains! One-sided headache! Backache! Frequent attacks of the "blues"! Fluctuating and distress of the heart! Albumen and tube casts in the water! Fififur rheumatic pains and neuralgia! Loss of appetite, flesh and strength! Constipation alternating with looseness of the bowels! Drowsiness by day, wakefulness at night! Abundant pale, or scanty flow of dark water! Chills and fever! Burning patches of skin! Then

YOU HAVE

Bright's Disease of the Kidneys. The above symptoms are not developed in any order, but appear, disappear and reappear until the disease gradually gets a firm grasp on the constitution. The kidney poisoned blood breaks down the nervous system, and finally pneumonia, diarrhoea, paralysis, or convulsions ensue, and then death is inevitable. This fearful disease is not a rare one—it is an every-day disorder, and claims more victims than any other complaint.

It must be treated in time or it will gain the mastery. Don't neglect it. WARNER'S is the only cure, and it will cure you if you will use it promptly and as directed. It is the only specific for the disease.
