A carved oak pulpit has been placed in St. Paul's, Salem, N.Y., in memory of the late Alexander McNish, who was for many years the people's warden.

A very handsome chalice was given lately to St. George's, Newburgh, N.Y., in memory of the late rector, the Rev. Dr. Applegate. The chalice base is highly ornamented with six repousse illustrations from events in the life of our Lord. It was dedicated and used for the first time on Easter Day.

AN IMPORTANT BOOK

The Study of Nature and the Vision of God; with Other Essays in Philosophy.

By Professor George John Blewett.
$1.75 net; by mail, $2.00

"We wish it were possible to devote more space than we have at our command to this remarkable book, which combines a depth of philosophic thought and religious feeling with a lucidity and felicity of style all too uncommon on both sides of the Atlantic. Prof. Blewett is indeed a writer who well may become a classic, for he illuminates subjects of intense intellectual obscurity with the force and freedom of his prose. He not only knows what he means, but his knowledge and meaning are brought within his reader's vision."—THE SPECTATOR, LONDON, ETC.

WILLIAM BRIGGS
29-33 Richmond St., West, Toronto

A splendid walnut reredos, erected to the memory of the late Rev. George Latimer, has been placed in St. John the Evangelist, Philadelphia. Mr. Latimer was the first rector of this parish and he ministered to its needs most faithfully for a number of years. St. John's, Hallock, Minn., has been enriched by the gift of a finely polished brass altar cross which was recently dedicated by Bishop Morrison.
