THE VICTORIA

HOME JOURNA

SSUED EVERY SATURDAY AT VICTORIA, B. C. SUBSCRIPTION - - $1.00 PER YEAR.

Advertising Rates on Application.

Address all communications to THE VICTORIA HOME JOURNAL, Office: 77 Johnson street, Victoria, B. C.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 11, 1893.

CHANGE OF ADDRESS.

Subscribers ordering address of their papers changed must always give their former as well as present address.

CONTINUED.

All papers are continued until an explicit order is received for discontinuance, and until arrearages are paid.

PERSONAL GOSSIP.

Mrs. G. F. Simpson, has returned from a six weeks' visit to San Francisco.

A social party was given by Dr. and Mrs. Wade, the other evening, at their residence, 34 Bellville street.

Rumor says that a well known Victorian, prominent in yachting circles, will shortly wed the leading soprano singer of St. Andrew's Cathedral choir.

The engagement has been announced of Mr. Jacob Lukov, a rising young clothing merchant, of this city, to Miss Dora Fleishmann, of Vancouver.

Mr. M. M. Boyd, of Bobcaygeon, Ont., a prominent eastern capitalist, who is largely interested in live stock and lumber, was in the city during the week.

Mr. Daniel McBrady, of the Land Registry Office, and Miss Hart, were united in Delia marriage Thursday evening. The wedding was a private one.

The weekly meetings of the Choral Club have been adjourned for the present, but will commence the first Tuesday in November.

Miss Flossie Hayward, has gone East to spend the winter at Toronto. Miss Hayward is quite popular with her acquaintances and her presence will be missed in many social gatherings this winter.

An at home was given at the residence of Mrs. J. Isaacs Johnson street, on Wednesday last, in honor of a guest, Miss Olga Wil-Progressive Vancouver. der, whist, parlor games and dancing were indulged in, much to the dclight of all present.

The officers of the Royal Arthur deserve credit for the entertainment they provided for their friends last Wednesday evening, on the occasion of the flagship ball, at Esquimalt. There were a large number of invited guests, which included Victoria's four hundred.

Hon. Geo. E. Foster, Minister of Finance, will be here in a few days to hold a conference with the manufacturers and merchants. A. B. Erskine will not be there, as he is very busy daily fitting the public with boots and shoes at the Mammoth Shoe Emporium of B. C., corner Government and Johnson streets. It will pay you to call there and get prices.

The executive committee of the Victoria Canoe Club, are fully alive to the interests of the membership and lady friends. To this end they propose holding a series of smoking concerts and social dances during the winter season. It is expected that the first dance under the auspices of the Canoe Club will occur early in November. The members of the executive committee are a sufficient guarantee of its success.

MUSIC AND THE DRAMA

Sam Morris is with Mattie Vickers' company.

Remember the lacrosse concert again for the winter season on on the evening of the 26th October.

> Reports are to the effect that Hermann the Magician is raking in the filthy lucre.

R. E. French, will assume the local management of Cordrays Theatre, at Seattle.

M. Coqueline and Mme. Jane Harding are soon to come to the coast with a fine reportoire.

Manager Frank Morse of "A Trip to Chinatown," reports business as very good for this season notwithstanding the "silver question."

Ogilvie's Hungarian Flour is popular wherever the English language is spoken. Bread made from Ogilvie's brands is said to be the best in the world, and that is the reason why this flour is spoken of so favorably. When you buy bread you may as well have the best, which you will have if it is made from Ogilvie's Hungarian.

....ADVERTISE IN THE....

HOME JOURN

CIRCULATION INCREASING

