

4th. That the principal sums of the said Army Bills of Twenty-five Dollars each and upwards, should, at the option of the Commander of the Forces, be payable on demand to the holders of such Army Bills in Cash, or in Government Bills of Exchange, in London, at Thirty Days Sight, at the current rate of Exchange.

5th. That the Interest of all such Army Bills, of Twenty-five Dollars each and upwards, upon the payment thereof in Cash, or in Bills of Exchange as aforesaid, should be paid in Army Bills, or in Cash, at the Army Bill Office, at the option of the holders of such Army Bills.

6th. That the principal sums of all such Army Bills of Twenty-five Dollars each, and upwards, if paid Cash, should be paid at the Army Bill Office, but if paid in Government Bills of Exchange, should be paid at the Office of the Commissary General, upon a deposit in Army Bills of the amount of the Bills of Exchange to be so paid, and a certificate of such deposit under the hand of the Superintendent of the Army Bill Office, to the Commissary General.

7th. That it will be adviseable for His Excellency the Governor, as Commander of the Forces, from time to time, to prepare and make, or cause to be prepared and made, such number of Army Bills of the value of Four Dollars each, as he shall see fit. Provided the said Army Bills of Four Dollars each, and the said Army Bills of Twenty-five Dollars each and upwards, do not together exceed the aforesaid sum of Two hundred and fifty thousand pounds Currency.

8th. That the said Army Bills of Four Dollars each, should be payable at the Army Bill Office in Cash, to the Bearer, on demand.

9th. That all Army Bills whatever, should be issued as Cash, upon the warrants of His Excellency the Commander of the Forces, to such person or persons, as he, by such warrants, shall see fit to direct such payments to be made.

10th. That the current rate of Exchange should be established on Oath,