MADOC JUNCTION

Again death has visited our neighborhood and claimed for its victim Miss Hannah Carr. She was taken with a severe stroke last May from which she lingered very helpless for all these long months. She was a daughter of the late Day Carr and was 68 years old. She was one who made many friends and her death came on Aug. 28th at the home of her sister, Mrs. Vrooman, Ridge Road. The many flowers showed the esteem in which she was held. The service was at the house, being conducted by Rev. G. McQuade, after which she was laid to rest at the cemetery at West Huntingdon. Miss Maggie Post and Stella Wilson are visiting in Belleville. The carpenters have put some improvements on the school. Miss Kennedy and Miss Moore from Stirling have charge of the school this coming year. Quite a number went to Deseronto on Friday to spend the day. Dr. B. Powell of Stockdale was in our neighborhood recently. Our Sunday School Convention is Wretched from Asthma. Strength of body and vigor of mind are inevitably impaired by the visitations of asthma. Who can live under the cloud of recurring attacks and keep the body and mind at their full efficiency? Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy dissipates the cloud by removing the cause. It does relieve. It does restore the sufferer to normal bodily trim and mental happiness. Friendship means more and the same time less than any other word in the English language.
