CANNOT SAVE THEMSELVES

This is the Opinion of Correspondent Regarding the Russians

He Earnestly Pleads for Intervention of the Allies

By Courier Leased Wire

London, July 16.—In continuing to urge allied intervention in Russia, the Harbin correspondent of the Daily Mail, under date July 11th, writes despairingly of any possible effort by the Russians for their own salvation.

"The Russians," he says, "characteristically are speculating less whether the advent of General Horvath (recently proclaimed provisional ruler of Siberia) will help restore their former fortunes, than how long he will last. A large body of opinion predicts his imminent fall, and the prediction is not accompanied by any particular emotion. The prevailing sentiment is summed up in the Russian fatalistic word 'nitcheyo.'"

"The lack of any kind of enthusiasm is remarkable and depressing. Meanwhile, intrigue and counter-intrigue prosper and this will continue until the Allies enter and firmly take hold of the situation. The correspondent dwells on the obscurity of General Horvath's personal aims and hints that he has unlimited ambitions, adding: "He does not mean himself to be governor-general of Siberia or all Russia. He proposes to have a cabinet with own elected premier under him. Here if fortune favors him there is plenty of room for realization of vast ambitions, possibly to the extent of a dictatorship over all Russia."

GERMANS WERE BADLY FOILED

With Regard to Their Favorite Weapon of Surprise

By Courier Leased Wire

Paris, July 16.—(Havas Agency).—All news from the battle front indicates that the elements of surprise, a favorite German weapon, was a total failure Monday.

The French military chiefs, says Maurice Barrès in The Echo de Paris, foresaw with wonderful approximation the date and locality of the German effort and General Foch made all dispositions so that the attack was begun under conditions favorable to the Allies. The main declares the French command was informed perfectly of the German preparation and knew on Sunday morning that the German troops had begun to use their reserve food supplies. This enabled the French artillery to deliver an intense fire against the Germans with the result that the attackers were badly battered.

BAN ALL MEETINGS THROUGHOUT IRELAND

London, July 16.—A Dublin despatch to the Daily News reads: "The Nationalist newspapers are filled with announcements prohibiting sporting, social and political gatherings that were to have taken place during the present week-end. The Gaelic Athletic Association has cancelled all its curling and football fixtures for to-day in consequence of a warning from the government."

Y.M.C.A. IS DEFENDED

In a Strong Manner by Gen. Wilson—Pays Very High Tribute to Work of the Organization

Quebec, July 15.—The following letter which is at once a strong defence of and an earnest tribute to the work of the Young Men's Christian Association overseas, has just been received by the Quebec Chronicle from Major-Gen. Sir David Wilson, K.C.B., C.M.G., general manager of the paper:

"I am in receipt of a copy of the paper of the 27th of May last, giving despatch from Hamilton, Ont., regarding the debate at the Great War Veterans' Association of Ontario on the subject of the Y.M.C.A. and the work that they are doing in this country. "Having been over here now going on four years, and having been almost continuously stationed in other parts of the world, during that period, I am, I consider, in a position more or less to give an unbiased and intelligent opinion concerning this matter, and I further consider I would not be doing my honorable duty if I were to allow such statements to pass by without comment.

"Whether or not the Y.M.C.A. charge despatch pieces 'that others are for goods that they sell to the men is beyond my knowledge, but I do take exception to the statement that 'they are four-flushers and hypocrites,' that they give very little aid to the men, and that they are doing work in the newspapers only.' These statements are absolutely false. The Y.M.C.A. over there is doing a most noble work and it is common knowledge that our Canadian association is continuously carrying out its duties in a quiet, unpretentious manner, while at the same time giving the greatest possible benefit to the men in that part of the area in which we may be located.

Always Ready to Help. "The officers in charge of the association in this division are absolutely possessed with one ambition, and that is to give to our men in the trenches and in the lines of communication the fullest benefit of their services, and they do this without stint and without regard to only their personal concerns, but also, in many instances, to their personal safety. Their stations are located well forward into the line, and at night they are prepared to give every material assistance to the men, either those in the line, working parties, or other details who may be in that particular sector.

Nothing is heard of this work carried out quietly and unostentatiously, and there is no such thing as parading their good work in the newspapers such as they have been charged with in this connection. "These officers enter into the games and sports of the men with the greatest vigor and spirit. They encourage these healthy exercises and not only do they encourage them by their presence, but they assist them in every way possible in providing material for these games without any cost whatever to the men. This, I believe they have been able to do not only through the generous contribution of our people in Canada, but through the profit that they make of the articles sold in their small canteens. They further provide claims shows, theatricals and other forms of entertainment without any charge whatever, and I can testify ready to assist with their good work in anything which I suggest to them in the interests of the men in this division.

There is no such thing as parading any of their good works, and I as well as every officer and man of this division, and I am sure I speak almost for the whole Canadian Corps are proud of the work that is being carried out by the Canadian Y.M.C.A.

HOUSE SHORTAGE IN WINDSOR

Leads to an Appeal for Dominion Government Help

Windsor, July 16.—So serious has become the housing problem in Windsor and adjoining cities that the Dominion Government will be asked by the Border Cities Real Estate board to back the municipalities in a debenture issue of $1,500,000 for the immediate construction of 1,000 workmen's homes. With private funds almost unobtainable except at prohibitive interest, building in the border cities, so far as residential property is concerned, has been at a standstill this year, and, as a result, the industrial growth of the district has been retarded, according to statements made by members of the Real Estate board at a special meeting yesterday.

The normal number of workmen's homes built each year in Windsor and vicinity during the past six or seven years has been from 500 to 1,000. Figures compiled by Building Inspector Parker show this class of building has decreased by more than 100 per cent. in the past two years. This condition is due, it was stated at the meeting, to dearth of private capital. "Despite the fact that thousands of workmen have left the Canadian cities along the border to take up military duties, the population of the district has increased by leaps and bounds, until Windsor's population is now well over 30,000. It is estimated that 500 families have been compelled to 'double up' because houses are no available. The decision of the Canadian Steel Corporation, a subsidiary of the United States Steel Corporation, to proceed with the construction of its $40,000,000 plant at Ojibway, just west of Windsor, has resulted in many inquiries from American manufacturers seeking factory sites here. Damage to the extent of $75,000 was sustained in the Sumas prairie owing to the recent floods.
