HUMOR

IT MADE A DIFFERENCE.

How the Colonel Came to Make a Speech at Out Rates.

"Well, gentlemen, what can I do for you today?" queried the colonel as he entered his office after a brief absence and found three farmer looking men in possession.

"We are a committee from the county fair," explained one, "and we want to see about the address. You make 'em, don't you?"

"Oh, certainly?"

"What's your figger?"

"I delivered two county fair addresses last fall and received $50 each."

"Um! Too high."

"There was no fault found with my prices last year. It takes time to prepare one, you know, and then I must journey down and deliver it. The figure I named is a very reasonable one."

"Look here, colonel," said the chairman of the committee after considering a bit, "have you got one of your old addresses on hand?"

"I believe so."

"And can't you put 'er in for twenty-five?"

"But some one might get on to it."

"We'll take all the chances of that."

All the people who will listen to you will be old Mrs. Cosely, who is as deaf as a post, and old Jim Shaw, who will take it for a Fourth of July oration anyhow, and you won't run the slightest risk. Won't this make a difference in your figgers?"

The colonel blushed and stammered and said he thought it would, and when the committee left they had his receipt for $30, and he agreed to be on time.—Chicago News.

Her Offense.

The despondent damsel had been apprehended in the very act of drinking carbolic. The speedy work of skilled physicians saved her life. The physicians afterward admitted that they had saved it. An officious constable arrested her on the ground of attempted suicide. Then a wise man present interfered and said:

"I object to this high handed procedure. If this person is to be seized on any charge it should be as a violator of the pure food law."

"How so?" exclaimed every one in unison.

"Because she was putting acid inside 'er."

Whereupon the crowd released the woman and with one accord hanged the author of the pun.—Judge.

No Inducement.

"Why don't you devote more time to study?" said the serious person.

"What for?" asked the monochalant citizen.

"So that you will surpass all other people in wisdom."

"I don't see the good of it. It's hard enough to keep from being lonesome as it is."—Washington Star.

In the Chair.

"The soprano gave canary for a birthday the contrary, "and her."

"Quite appropriate, eh?" replied the tenor.

"Yes. I understand the bird can't sing a little bit."—Catholic Standard and Times.

On One Condition.

Meanley—No, sir, I don't believe in paying fancy prices to have clothes made to order. Now, here's a suit I bought ready made for $9.00. If I should tell you I paid $25 for it, wouldn't you believe it?

Knock—I might if you told me over the telephone.—Philadelphia Press.

Just Like Charlie.

"I bet I know something that you don't," said her little brother.

"What is it?" the young man asked.

"When sister kissed Fido last night she rubbed her nose and said, 'Oh, you tickle just like Charlie since he's begun to raise a mustache!'"—Chicago Record-Herald.

Nothing but the Truth.

His wife (angrily)—So you have nothing but your income. When you proposed to me you said you had money to burn.

Her husband—And I told you the truth, my dear. Haven't I just paid for a ton of coal?—Boston Transcript.

Not His Fault.

The Fat One—My husband doesn't support me like he used to.

The Thin One—Well, when you married him you only weighed about a hundred pounds.—Philadelphia Press.

Women

Can you Answer "NO" to any of these Questions?

1. Dr. Hugo's Health Tablets for Women are the prescription used for sick and run-down women by a great specialist in diseases of your sex. Such a prescription ought to be a good one, hadn't it?

2. The tablets are compounded just for women and contain the special tonics which your peculiar system needs. That should make them a better medicine for you than any sold alike for both men and women, shouldn't it?

3. The tablets contain the very latest ingredients and discoveries in medicine—are up-to-date. That makes them worth more to you than any medicine put on the market years ago, doesn't it?

4. The tablets are a compound remedy, that is, they contain something for every organ of your system. They must therefore reach the organ which is causing you trouble, even if you don't know yourself which one it is. That is a big point in their favor, isn't it?

5. Unlike the liquid preparations, the tablets contain neither alcohol nor opium.
You don't want to drink whiskey or take opium, do you?

6. Because the tablets contain something for every organ, they reach immediately the seat of the trouble. Result—immediate gain in health. That is what you want, isn't it?

The Vital Question.

But here is the question of most vital interest to women: suffer from a rundown condition or any other peculiar condition?

Will you take the tablets? Will you risk 50c. to get back your lost time and vigor?

The 72 tablets in a single box, taken now, will start you on the road to health.
Take them now before your condition becomes harder to cure.

Cooked Foods.

Cooked foods should be eaten moderately warm, not hot. The high temperature injures the mucous lining of the whole digestive apparatus and by increasing the flow of perspiration renders the skin more susceptible to chills and colds. The habit of eating hot food also increases a desire for liquids, and thus one bad habit leads to another.

The Flute.

Conductors of orchestras find that the flute is far more often played out of tune than the violin, the reason being that many of its natural notes are not strictly in tune with the rest of the band.

A Queer Scottish Custom.

In Scotland the custom still prevails of taking down the window blinds when there is a corpse in a house and hanging white sheets across the windows. The custom also prevails in some parts of England, particularly in the northern part, and in many families a special "death sheet" is reserved for the chamber in which the corpse may lie and is often used for many generations.

Our Strongest Stones.

The traprocks of New Jersey and the dolomites of Staten Island are the strongest stones in the United States, their crushing resistance being 24,000 pounds to the cubic inch.

The Caterpillar.

The female of one species of caterpillar tears off the fur from the extremity of her abdomen to make a soft bed for her eggs and to preserve them from the cold. Yet she never sees her young, for after she has accomplished the task of laying the eggs the caterpillar invariably dies.

Eyelashes in Marble.

Only one marble statue of the human figure with eyelashes is known. It is one of the gems of the Vatican, the Sleeping Ariadne, and was found in 1503.

Burning Meteors.

It is supposed that meteors begin to burn when they are within about 125 miles of the earth and that combustion is completed and they disappear at from thirty-five to fifty miles above the earth. When we see a falling star, therefore, we may consider that we have watched it through a flight of about a hundred miles before it finally burns out and disappears from view.

Distant Stars.

There are stars so distant that a flying machine moving at the rate of 500 miles an hour would require 500,000-000 years to reach them.

Male That Eat Fruit.

Fruit eating bats eat fruit only and are confined to Asia, the islands of the East Indian archipelago being their principal habitats. They are active in daytime in vast numbers and eat a large flock of fruit.
