MAYOR HANDS OUT JUSTICE

A Poor Drunk is allowed to go without Paying any Costs

THE POLICE COURT NEWS

Mayor Marshall attended his first Police Court yesterday morning in the capacity of Judge. There was not a very heavy dockat, one solitary drunk bing the only man who faced him. The unfortunate's name was Alfred Williams, and he came from Essex. He pleaded guilty. There was nothing else to do, for he was caught with the goods in him. He was very sorry — they all are—and said this was his first offense. He had no money, no friends fense. He had no money, no friends and no job, and under the circumstances, and being that it was civic holiday, the Mayor thought that he should be allowed to go without osts, and judgment was so given costs, and judgment was so given. The prisoner was, however, given a severe lecture on the evils of drinking, and this, coupled with his experience, will jit is hoped, prove of value to him.

The prisoner was very profuse in his thanks, and there were tears in his eyes when he left the Police Court.

A young lad, who is over-enthus-iastic in his love for baseball, was the only offender in the Police Court his morning. This young by, along with some others, plays bill on the coad on Richmond St., and occasionroad on Richmond St., and occasionally the bill goes over the fence and Mrs. W. Lane is spending the day at the Eau.

Neil Watson, of Mull, was a city visitor yesterday.

Roy Brisco was among the visitors to the Falls yesterday.

Mrs. Goldberg, of Detroit, was a Maple City visitor Saturday.

P. K. Morley, Roy Campbell and L. D. Rice spent yesterday in Detroit, in the garden, and takes a pride in keeping it up. Sometimes the ball is hard to find, and many of the vegetables are tramped down before the game is resumed. Mr. Drago warned the boys, but they continued to play the game.
