BUILDER AND STRENGTHENER.

That is the Term an Ottawa Lady Applies to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

Among many in Ottawa and the vicinity who have benefited one way or another by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, the Journal has learned of the case of Mrs. Gilbert, wife of Mr. T. V. Gilbert, of Hintonburg.

LET THERE BE LIGHT

Thrown on the Subject of Home Dyeing.

There are dyes—the world famed Diamond Dyes—that crown our labors and home dyeing work with perfect success, and there are imitations and worthless dyes that bring ruin and disaster where ever they are used.

There are dyes—the chemically pure and scientifically prepared Diamond Dyes—that have brought blessings to millions of homes for long years, and there are the vile preparations and mixtures of imitators who, as far as style of package is concerned, get as near the "Diamond" as they dare go.

There is nothing more disagreeable in a young person than to attempt to "put on airs," to order other people about, to speak with a half-bidden impudence to older people, to show no deference, no respect.

Landlady (at breakfast table)—"It is only this morning that I read about the efficacy of the hot water cure."

Boarder (looking suspiciously at the coffee)—"Well, I've taken it three years, and I know it never helped me any."

Wife (to her husband)—"Oh, say, my dear, how badly the tailor has put this button on your waistcoat. This is the fifth time I have had to sew it on again."

The oldest university in the world is El Ayhar at Cairo. It is the greatest Muhammadan university, having clear records dating 975.

Prohibition and Liberty.

BY REV. CARL P. MELTZHOFF.

Some believe that prohibition of the drink traffic is an encroachment upon the liberty of a free and sovereign people. If one kind of prohibition encroaches upon another, other kinds of prohibition must do the same.

If it is proper and just to prohibit the liquor traffic at certain hours and days—for instance, on election days—then it must be proper and just to prohibit it twenty-four hours every day and three hundred, sixty-five days every year.

Why is the drink traffic restricted? Because it is so utterly corrupt and dangerous that even the best friends are afraid to let it alone without restriction of some kind.

Why is the drink traffic restricted? Because it is so utterly corrupt and dangerous that even the best friends are afraid to let it alone without restriction of some kind.

An Indian's Plea for Prohibition.

A most interesting contribution to a recent number of The New Time, is that entitled "An Indian's Plea for Prohibition."

"How fortunate it is," said Mr Gooding, "that the talents of the producer, are as varied as the wants of the consumer, and that the wants of the consumer are as varied as the talents of the producer!"

There is nothing more disagreeable in a young person than to attempt to "put on airs," to order other people about, to speak with a half-bidden impudence to older people, to show no deference, no respect.
