Whirl of the Town.*

The recent northeast wind did much damage to fishing interests in the bay. Nets were wrecked and other damage done.

Extensive improvements are being made to the Union Hotel. Another storey is being added and other additions made.

Dr. McCully of St. John who limits his practice to diseases of the Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat, may be consulted at the Adams House Chatham July 22nd to July 27th inclusive.

Two deer frolicking about the streets of a village is rather an unusual sight, but last Sunday morning Nelson enjoyed the spectacle. Boys chased and stoned the animals out of town.—World.

The Clippers of Chatham defeated the Maple Leaf Club of Newcastle in a friendly game of Base ball on Monday. The final score stood 7-4 in favor of the Clippers. Mr. John Brooks, Jr., acted as umpire.

M. S. Stewart of Neguac has purchased the stock and good will of the W. S. Loggie & Co's store at that place and will run the business in his own behalf. He has been very successful in his late capacity as manager and his friends wish him success.

Two men while collecting fish in a boat on the Northwest recently saw a large bear on the beach. They borrowed a gun then returned to the spot, and fired several shots at Mr. Bruin, but without any results. On closer examination they found it was a burned stump they had taken for a bear. It is needless to add, they did not tell the story.

Mr. R. A. Murdoch is amalgamating his business with that of other merchants in a neighboring city, with headquarters at Chatham. The combination will largely increase the capital and enable importations to be made on a cash basis. The object of the company is to bring the producer and purchaser closer together, eliminating the middle man and giving his profits to the buyer.—World.

Ian Hannah M. A. D. C. H. President of King's College Windsor N. S. a speaker of distinguished merit and with a brilliant University Career at Cambridge, will give an address in St. Peter's Church, Derby, Wednesday evening July 12th and in St. Andrew's Church, Newcastle, Thursday evening July 13th Time 8 o'clock. The Public should not fail to hear him. Dr. Hannah is probably the youngest College President on the Continent.

On Sunday evening June 25th the new Union Church at Red Pine Island on the Tabusintac circuit was opened and dedicated for the worship of God. A large congregation was present. The service was conducted by Rev. J. R. MacKay, Presbyterian, and Rev. E. S. Weeks, B. A., Methodist. This neat, well finished and comfortable church reflects great credit on the community in general. The work on the inside was done by Mr. D. McCullum. May it prove to be a place of rich spiritual blessing and where God may honor the work of his servants.

The regular quarterly meeting of the Presbytery of Miramichi was held in St. James Hall Newcastle, on Tuesday, the 27th. Rev. James Wheeler, of Bathurst, was appointed moderator for the year; Rev. J. M. McLeod, of New Mills, was re-appointed clerk, and standing committees were also appointed. The committee appointed to consider the re-arrangement of the congregation of Douglstown and Nelson, and the missions of Milbank and Bartibogue, reported progress. The site selected for the new church at Black River met with the approval of the Presbytery, and the congregation was recommended for a grant of $600 from the Century Manse and Church Building Fund. Permission was also given them to mortgage the church property. H. J. Fraser, was licensed a minister of the Presbyterian church. Presbytery adjourned to meet on the last Tuesday in September. Rev. Mr. Archibald, will preach at the anniversary services in St. John's church Chatham.

The mystery in connection with the disappearance A. Bourgeois, a traveller, at Campbellton has not been cleared up. A brother of the missing man was in town last week making enquiries in regard to the matter but he had to return home without any clue as to his whereabouts. It is not thought likely that he is anywhere in that vicinity or something would have come to light before this.

Mr. F. R. Dalton's store has been greatly improved and renovated. A handsome hand painted ceiling has been done by Mr. F. Bockler, which is a work of art and one of the daintiest pieces of work of its kind in the province. New fixtures have been added to the stationery department and the well selected stock tastefully displayed therein. Mr. Dalton has now a handsome store.

Some strong language was justly used in reference to the Miramichi Steam Navigation Co's management yesterday by a number of passengers who, with a quantity of freight waited in vain for the arrival of the Alexandra. After telephoning to the Company's office, Chatham it was learned that the government inspectors were performing their annual duties. In fairness to the travelling public the Management might give at least a day's notice and not disappoint people, especially at this season when many excursionists are going to the seashore.

The Herald Square Stock company appeared for the first time at Newcastle Monday evening, presenting Man to Man, a four act melodrama of a high order. All the members of the company proved themselves experienced actors and actresses and gave a smooth and finished performance of two and a half hours, interspersed with specialties. The audience which was a large one was well satisfied and showed its appreciation with rounds of applause. The company will appear in a change of programme every night this week, presenting among other attractions the great melodrama with special scenery Tracy the Outlaw King. A matinee for ladies and children will be given on Saturday afternoon at half past two.
