Mrs. Skingley, a pretty girl of tender yaers, said that she was married to Skingley about a year and a half ago, and that last July she went to visit her mother in Buffalo. When she got back her hubby refused to support her. Mr. Counsell said there was no reason why she should not be supported, and her husband was willing to support her if she would wait till he got work. She said her husband was working at the Rolling Mills and the Magistrate told them to get together and settle matters; in the meantime hubby will have to pay $3 per week.
