NEW BRUNSWICK WANTS TOURISTS

C. C. A. Ward, Sackville, Makes Appeal

In a speech broadcasted on Wednesday night by C. C. A. Ward, President of the New Brunswick Tourist and Resources Association, Sackville, he said he was confidently expecting great results from the publicity campaign at present being carried on. He asked that the various towns and villages make the tourists welcome by erecting signs on the roads leading into the place, bearing the words "Welcome to Blankville" Mr. A. Ward said:

"During the last few months a big effort has been made to increase the membership of the New Brunswick Tourist and Resources Association. Campaigns have been conducted or are under way in Moncton, St. Stephen, Milltown, St. Andrews, New castle, Chatham; Edmundston; St. John; Bathurst and Sackville. Every where the response has been hearty and generous.

"For the first time in their history Prince Edward Island and New Brunswick have got together in a joint publicity campaign. The Tourist Associations of these provinces are spending thousands of dollars in advertising their scenic and climatic attractions in American and Upper Canadian newspapers.

"I appeal to you who are listening in tonight to help us in this worthy work of boosting New Brunswick. Working together with a common purpose, striving to forget mere selfish ambitions and aiming to catch a vision of the future we will help to make possible a more progressive New Brunswick."

THE CHEERFUL WOMAN

Is One Who Has the Rich, Red Blood of Good Health

The fact that one woman is bright eyed, rosy-cheeked, strong and cheerful while another is pale; weak and depressed is due more often than otherwise to the condition of the blood. The way to remedy this depressed state is to build up the blood, and for this purpose there is no other tonic can equal Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. A case in point is that of Mrs. Melvin Abra, Graveley Street, Vancouver B.C. who says: "About two years ago I was a very sick woman. I seemed to be wasting away and getting thinner all the time. I grew so weak that the doctor sent me to the hospital but the treatment there did not help me and I returned home. Then I tried a number of tonics with no better results. At this stage my mother came to me and as she is a firm believer in Dr. Williams' Pink Pills she started me on this medicine. I can only say that they did wonders for me. I began to get new health and strength after I had taken a few boxes, and day by day this improvement continued until I was again well and able to do all my housework, and I have not had a sick day since. I cannot recommend your pills too highly and urge those who are looking for health and happiness to give them a trial."

If your dealer does not keep these pills you can get them by mail at 50 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Frederick Archibald Hovey, who departed this life April 30th 1924.

Rest for the little sleeper
Joy for the ransomed soul
Peace for the lonely weeper
Dark though the waters roll.
Weep for the little sleeper.
Weep it will ease the heart
Cannot make the dull pain deeper,
It will help to heal the smart

Hath the dear Savior found him
Laid him upon his breast
Folded his arms around him
Hushed him to endless rest.

My babe, with its new made grave is mine
This is God's gift to me.
A bleeding, fainting, broken heart
This is my gift to thee.

OBITUARY

ALLAN J. QUIGLEY

Misses K. C. and M. O. Quigley received a telegram last Wednesday announcing the death of their nephew Allan J. Quigley which occurred at his home Indian Head Sask. His death was very sudden and came as a shock to his relatives in Newcastle. He was taken ill Saturday evening with an attack of acute indigestion followed by pneumonia and he passed away Tuesday fortified by the rites of the Catholic Church of which he was a staunch member.

Deceased was born in Newcastle fifty-four years ago the eldest son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Quigley and removed to the West with his parents when quite young. He survived by his wife; two adopted children who are quite young one brother Thomas of Sedley, Sask. and one sister Mrs. Mary Seymour of Sintuluta, Sask. The remains were interred in the family lot at Wolseley.
